Thomas FALLS to Miss Eunice GILBERT, both of this town, married on Tuesday evening last.

The subscriber having suffered much by the late inundation, necessity obliges him to call on all those who are indebted to him for ferriage or otherwise, whose accounts have stood for a longer time than six months, to call and give him some relief, and he will thank them. Abel YARINGTON.

8 May 1798

Capt. THAYER for the purpose of forgoing statements - the account is more pompous than true. He has not been at Tioga Point since last February, and that no such fleet of 100 rafts ever started from that place. This looks to me like a preparative for a Swindling Job. A. B., Luzerne Co.

All manner of persons are hereby forbid, harboring my wife, Margaret or my son, Jacob, or of trusting them on my account; for I will not pay any debts of their contracting after this date. And I likewise forbid each and every person from harboring, entertaining, or employing said son, Jacob, in any kind of business, or any other of my children. Whosoever does contrary to the above may depend on being prosecuted as the law directs, for the subscriber. (The above is for reasons which commenced last October.) Justice JONES

Young Men, who have any inclination to join the troops, now raising under General WASHINGTON for the defense of the liberties and independence of the United States against hostile designs of Foreign Enemies - TAKE NOTICE - Enrollment at the house of Jesse FELL in Wilkes Barre for the 11th Regiment of Infantry commanded by Lieut. Col. Aaron OGDEN.

To the Public - Whereas my late husband, John HILL has posted me in three public places, forbidding all persons harbouring or trusting me on his account &c. (A pretty story indeed to communicate to the public) the truth is, which I can prove, I was married to him, if that is his name the 7th January 1798. I was then in tolerable good circumstances nearly a half years provision instore. Since which he has behaved in the most savage manner to me, abusing and threatening to murder me and himself, he has of late been in an almost continual state of intoxication with spirituous liquor and no new thing neither, neglecting all business toward an honest livelihood. He is a devourer of widows houses and I am not the first he has imposed on, he has two and some say three living wives beside me, therefore Mr. HILL need not give himself any uneasiness of my running in debt on his credit for he cannot pay his old whiskey debts. But thank God I have had no children by him nor like to have. Nancy HILL, Ulster.

29 April 1800

Melancholy Accident - Last Saturday, as a company of fishermen were rafting through Nanticoke Falls, on the Susquehanna, six miles below this town, their boat unfortunately overset, and three of them were drowned; the others, four in number, with great difficulty and nearly exhausted, gained the shore by swimming. John TREDAWAY, Ruggles BRUSH a son of Capt. Jonas BRUSH of Hanover and Davis BRADLEY, were the persons who perished.

Mr. TREDAWAY was a respectable farmer; and has left a widow with several children to deplore their loss. The other two were young men of reputation, and much esteemed in their neighbourhood. The body of Mr. TREDAWAY was found on the day following, entangled in the seine which was in the boat when he turned over: all search for the young men has, as yet, proved ineffectual.

Militia Fines - The Subscribers having been appointed a Court of Appeals for the 2nd Battalion 3rd Regiment, Luzerne Militia, to decide in cases of appeals from the militia fines, for non attendance on the legal days of exercise, for the present year, agreeable to the late militia law; do hereby give notice, that they will attend for the above purpose, at the house of John CAREY in Carey Town on Monday the 5th day of May next, on Tuesday the next day following at the house of L. MYERS, Esq., in Kingston. Those delinquents who have sufficient excuses to show, will do well to come forward on said days, as no excuse can be received at any other time or in any other manner. 12 Aug. 1800

Melancholy Accident - The following accident happened in Troy on Friday last: A person having dropped his shoe into a well near Mr. ASHLEY'S Tavern, which had been covered and unused for some time, persuaded Master Jack TILLMAN, a young lad about 14 years of age, son of the late Christopher TILLMAN, Esq., of this village, to descend into the well to fetch it up. A stick was tied on the end of a rope for the purpose, on which he placed his feet, and was lowered down, but as he approached the bottom, he was almost instantaneously suffocated with the dead air, and dropped from the rope. Jesse BENHAM, who has attended the ferry at Troy, inconsiderately went down after him, and met with a like fate. The water in the well not being more than a foot in depth, the bodies were soon taken up, but every attempt to reanimate them proved ineffectual. While we sympathize with the respectable and numerous connections of the former, who must sincerely regret his premature death, our sensibility must be peculiarly awakened at the fate of the latter, who has left a wife and several children to lament an irreparable loss.

Several similar accidents have occurred within our recollection, for persons going into wells, which had not been used for a length of time, or which pumps had been placed, and the tops closed. By letting down a lighted candle into a well the state of the air may be at once determined - if the candle continues to burn the well may be entered with safety.

19 Aug. 1800

On Saturday last, a child of James CONNELLY, of Jacob's Plains, aged 18 months, accidentally fell into a well, about fourteen feet to the water, when discovered, was taken out lifeless and quite cold, and remained in that situation more than fifteen minutes before he appeared to breathe; when by the application of warm flannel bandages, rubbing, and blowing breath into his nostrils, he was restored to life - he had lain some time in the well before he was discovered. He has not yet entirely recovered his rational faculties.

Fire! About five o'clock on the morning of Wednesday, the 7th inst., that valuable Grist-Mill, belonging to Foster HORTON, of Tunkhannock, was discovered to be on fire; and in two hours was burnt to the ground, together with the valuable effects it contained, among which were 100 bushels of grain; 75 belonging to Mr. HORTON, the remainder to his neighbors.

He had expended about one thousand pounds on this mill, had turned his attention principally to it, and had brought it to such perfection that its equal was not within 20 miles. By very great exertions, an adjoining Saw-Mill, which was several times on fire, was saved from the devouring element.

Here in a field for exercise of Humanity. Let those to whom Fortune has dispensed her favors, extend the hand of Charity for the relief of a worthy, tho' unfortunate fellow-citizen, who sees the effects of several years industry in a heap of ruins.

Those gentlemen who feel a disposition to assist Mr. HORTON in the erection a new Mill, will be pleased to leave their donations with Col. HOLLENBACK, or Judge FELL, in Wilkesbarre and Lawrence MYERS Esq., Gilbert CARPENTER or Williams TRUCKS in Kingston. We believe the smaller favors will be thankfully received.

All persons indebted by Bond, Note or Book Account are requested to settle their accounts immediately. ROSSETT & DOYLE, Asylum

A number of gentlemen and ladies met at the house of Elisha KEELER, at Allensburg (Wyalusing) on the 4th July to celebrate American Independence.

Melancholy Accident. Last evening two young men of this neighborhood, the sons of Messrs. Joseph SMITH and William CURRY undertook to watch a deer lick (their intentions being unknown to each other). Young Mr. SMITH arrived there before dark, and had secreted himself to watch the deer: Some time after Lockwood CURRY, a young man in the 19th year of his age, with a coverlid of a reddish cast over his shoulders, approached: SMITH supposing it to be a deer, fired his piece, and lodged the contents in the face and breast of Mr. CURRY. SMITH ran to the fatal spot, and instead of a deer, found his neighbor and most intimate acquaintance, bleeding and speechless! His surprise and astonishment were too great to be described; he ran immediately home, alarmed their parents and others, who went out and brought in the young man; he remained speechless to the last, and died about three o'clock this afternoon. From this and similar circumstances, hunters should take warning not to fire until they perfectly know their object. [Sheshequin, July 8th]

John TRUMBULL, for many years editor and printer of the Connecticut Centinel, died at Norwich, August 13th

Good Bargain in Lands - The subscriber offers for sale, in tracts of not less than 100 acres, to actual settlers, a body of land of upwards of 3000 acres, (as part of a tract of 4000 acres) situated on the southern waters of Bowman's Creek, in Luzerne Co., adjoining the township of Northmoreland (one of the Seventeen Townships) about 4 miles from the Susquehanna River, and 9 from Wilkesbarre, the County town, from hence there is a good waggon road. This land is almost all susceptible of cultivation, and generally of a good quality; there are some good situations for Mills. There are already five settlers on this tract and applications from others are frequent. Terms - 20 shillings per acre. The Purchaser by paying the yearly interest of 5 percent may retain the Principal forever if he chuses. This land was located by myself and the Patents from the State are now in my possession. The title is therefore indisputable. Thomas WRIGHT, Wilkesbarre.

David CRANE and Robert, son of Daniel SHOEMAKER, died on the 11th inst. A number of neighbors were collected together for the purpose of raising a log house for John SHOEMAKER, contiguous to the Mauhontowango flats; they proceeded with cheerfulness and alacrity, without any circumstance intervening to destroy the plea---e resulting from their benevolent design, until the last timber was raised, which was performed by skids, with the assistance of ropes; when the timber was elevated about nine feet, one of the ropes broke and one end of the timber fell, and rolled on the skid upon the neck and shoulders of Mr. CRANE, who instantly expired without a groan or struggle. By the sudden jolt of this end of the timber, the other rope slipped, and the opposite end of the timber fell within the other skid perpendicular upon the head and breast of R. SHOEMAKER, with such forces as to press his body into the earth nearly four inches; he survived about 15 minutes. Mr. CRANE has left a wife and three small children and Mr. SHOEMAKER, aged 17 years, has left aged parents and a large family to mourn the loss. (article in fold of paper) [Athens, Sept. 25th]

Estate of Rev. Jacob JOHNSON, late of Wilkesbarre, request payments. Jehoiada P. JOHNSON

The subscriber informs the public that he has erected a new Fulling Mill that will do business at the lowest pitch of water. He likewise will make the following colors, if called for, - Blue, Purple, Crimson, Green, London Brown, &c. All business will be done well and speedily by Azor STURDEVNAT, Kingston

Take Notice - Whereas the subscriber intends to remove immediately with his family out of these horrid regions now groaning under the despotic usurpation of Pennsylvania, he would wish to inform all those that are any ways indebted to him, that their respective accounts will be left with Major James WHEELER. All those who thro' mysterious long-suffering and forbearance, neglect to make payment by the first day of January next, may depend on immediate collection without any further indulgence or friendly admonition. Certified by Ebenezer BEEMAN, Braintrim.

The Commissioners under the Law of April 4, 1799 intend to make out the Certificates this winter for claims substantiated in the following township. The following titles have been exhibited to me. It is to be noted, that the exact quantities of land due to each claimant can only be ascertained by the survey on the ground: for although the titles are made out for the quantities hereunder specified, yet the Deeds and descriptions are for the most part so general, so loose, and so inaccurate, that the real quantities cannot be known precisely from the Deeds themselves without the surveys made under the direction of General STEELE and William WILSON, Esquire. Thomas COOPER, Wilkesbarre.

A few days ago, a child, about two years old, of Humphry BROWN, of Wyalusing, was lost. After a lengthy and ineffectual search, the mother chanced to look into the well, where she beheld her infant standing in the water. Mr. B. immediately descended and released his child from its watery prison. On examining it, no marks of injury appeared, although he well is 45 feet deep and very roughly stoned.

Public Sale on 15th Dec. next at the house of Shadrach OSTRON, Huntington Twp., the property belonging to the partnership of Thomas RIDGE and Persifer FRAZIER: -- viz. Whiskey, nails, cyder, rifles, powder, calicoes, saddles, muslins, handkerchiefs, tin ware, hats assorted, wheat by the bushel and sundry other articles. All persons indebted to partnership are requested to make payment, otherwise they will be proceeded against according to law.

20 Dec. 1802

On Tuesday morning the 7th inst. the house of Richard SPRINGER, of Hanover, accidentally took fire, and was entirely consumed, together with all the articles of furniture, bedding, &c. he was possessed of. The wife of Mr. SPRINGER was burnt in so severe a manner as not to be able to help herself; but is now recovering. It is hoped those who are well sheltered from the inclemencies of the season, will endeavor to administer to the necessities of this unfortunate family, who in so short a time are deprived of their all.

Isaac BENJAMIN, died at Plymouth on Saturday night last. He had been a short distance down the river after a fishing flat, and on his return is supposed ot have been taken with a fit. He was found on Sunday morning near the shore, with his face in the water; he is supposed to have fell into the water when seized by the fit, and there to have strangled.

William AYERS, sen., died at Plymouth a short time since.

31 Jan. 1803

Jan. 22 - The court of General Sessions for the county of Columbia, in this state, held a sitting at Claverack last week. The following adjudications took place. Harman HAVER, the father, and John and George HAVER, two sons, for grand Larceny, to hard labor in the State Prison for five years each, Henry HAVER, another son of Harman, for petit larceny, to two years labor; Cuff BUTLER, a black, for grand Larceny, four years labor. The father of the HAVERS was convicted on the testimony of John and George, who were his accomplices in the crime, "Train up a child in the way he should not go, and when he is old he will not depart from it." Especially if the parent continues to train his children in their more advanced age. Instances of family depravity equal to the above are not often found. [Note - this may be for Columbia Co., NY?]

25 April 1803

Taken up the first Fresh this spring, between two and three thousand feet of inch White Pine Boards, at Forty Fort landing. The owner may prove property, pay charges, and take them away.
Philip JACKSON and Gideon UNDERWOOD, Kingston

The court of Quarter Sessions for this county, on Wednesday passed sentence on the Rioters, who were concerned in the outrage upon Bartlet HINDS, the 29th December last. The defendants submitted to the mercy of the court.

The President then addressed them, in an appropriate speech; forcibly representing the enormity of their offence; the folly - the wickedness as well as the danger, of persisting in their attempts to resist the power of the State, and the due execution of its laws; recommending contrition for the past; & a peaceable demeanor in future; and concluded in the following terms.

It is incumbent on the Court, in passing sentence upon you, particularly in assessing the fines, to have an eye to the nature of the offence, and to the fortune and ability of the defendants, and we desire it may be particularly noticed, that the fines now imposed, originate in the knowledge, the Court have of your circumstances and inability, to bear heavier mulcts. We are solely restrained by the constitutional injunction "that fines shall not be excessive" from inflicting penalties upon you, proportioned to the nature of the outrage committed.

The judgement of the Court is, that Ichabod HALSEY, Salmon BOSWORTH, Isaac BROWNSON, Jabez HYDE jun. and Ephraim FAIRCHILD, be imprisoned in the common goal of the county of Luzerne, for three months, that Ichabod HALSEY pay a find of ten dollars to the commonwealth, and that Salmon BOSWORTH, Isaac BROWNSON, Jabez HYDE jun. and Ephraim FAIRCHILD, pay to the said Commonwealth, each the sum of twenty dollars. And that Dimon BOSTWICK, Nathan STEPHENS, John PASSMORE, Asa LATHROP, Samuel ROBINSON, Seril PECK, Loyd GOODSALL, Joseph UTTER and Ezekiel MOWREY, do each of them pay a fine of thirty dollars to the Commonwealth; and that each and every of you (lists names again) do give surety to the Commonwealth in five hundred dollars, with one freeholder each in the like sum of five hundred dollars, for your good behavior for the space of one year, that you pay the costs of prosecution." & c.

Those persons in Luzerne County who are indebted to Jacob ARNDT, jun. late Merchant of Easton, either by Bond, Note or Book Accounts, are requested to call on the subscriber (who is authorised to settle the same) and discharge their respective accounts; otherwise they will be dealt with according to law. Philip ARNDT, Wilkesbarre

4 June 1803 - CHANGED TO SATURDAY PUBLICATION

To those persons indebted at the store lately kept by Thomas FISH, in Hanover, that the books and papers generally are placed in the hands of James CAMPBELL, Esq. who is authorised to settle them. Any person neglecting to attend to this notice will be called on agreeable to law. Zeb. BUTLER, Wilkesbarre

Fire at Troy (May 3) - On Sunday morning last about four o'clock, a fire was discovered breaking out from a hatter's shop owned and occupied by Jonathan HATCH, in the north part of the village. In the short space of two hours eleven buildings were laid in ruins. The block being compact and the materials principally pine, rendered the more inflammable from the remarkable dryness of the season - baffled every well directed attempt of the citizens. Fortunately no lives were lost, nor any person materially injured, though, many were eminently exposed and several barely escaped the flames. Including the destruction of furniture, &c, and damages, the whole loss may be moderately estimated at $8000.

In our last paper, an error occurred in the publication of a Marriage. The following is correct: Conrad TEETOR married to Miss Sally, dau. of Capt. Nathan WALLER Conrad TEETOR, Intends to carry on the Saddling Business at the house on Bank Street a few rods North of Messrs ROSSETT & DOYLE'S store, Wilkesbarre. New Saddles and Bridles, for gentlemen or ladies, furnished on the shortest notice: and repairs Saddles, Bridles, Harness & c. carefully attended to. Every favor suitably acknowledged; Grain or Hides will be taken in payment; and cash not refused.

Alexander ROSENCRANS, Will carry on the Tyloring Business at the same place. He solicits the favors of his friends and the public generally; and by strict attention to his business, will endeavor to give his employer's satisfaction. Wilkesbarre.

$3 Reward - Ranaway from the subscriber on Saturday, 21st of May last, an apprentice boy, named John ROSWELL, about 15 years old, he had when he ran away, a pair of linen striped overalls, muslin shirt, clouded yellow and green cotton jacket, wool hat. This is to forewarn all persons trusting or harboring

The Public are informed that my wife, Mary, has eloped from my bed and board, and taken from me property to the amount of Fifty Pounds, - Among which was a bond for Twenty Pounds, dated April 23, 1802, and given the subscriber by John SHLOTTER, of Hamilton Twp., Northampton Co. All persons are warned not to purchase the above bond as I shall immediately forbid the payment. They are likewise forbidden to trust or harbor her on my account, as I will pay no debts of her contracting after this date.

The Subscribers having been appointed by the Court of Commissioners of the County of Luzerne, Trustees to Peter BULLARD, an Insolvent Debtor, give notice to all persons who may have any claim against the said Peter to exhibit them to the said Trustees on the 4th Monday of August, at the house of John P. ARNDT, Innkeeper, in Wilkesbarre, when they will attend. Lawrence MYERS and Matthew COVELL

Melancholy Accident - On the 20th inst. a young man at Willingborough, in this county, lost his life from the accidental discharge of a rifle. The following are the particulars: Several persons were standing at the door of Benjamin BUCK, where Daniel BUCK was loading a rifle; after putting in the powder and wadding, he had rammed it down, leaving the rod in the muzzle of the piece; it lay on his arm; after priming, and shutting the pan, it went off at half cock, and the ramrod pierced the body of Geo., son of John FOOT, of Lawsville, but late from Arlington, Vermont. His age was about 20 years; he was taken into the house of Mr. BUCK, where he lay in extreme pain until next day at one o'clock P.M. when he expired. A jury of inquest was impaneled; whose verdict was "Accidental Death." His funeral was attended by a large concourse of people, and a sermon adapted to the occasion, was preached by Rev. Daniel BUCK. This, with many other accidents of the kind, should induce people to use firearms more cautiously.

On Tuesday, the 27th inst., was launched from the boat-yard of Messrs. Philip and John P. ARNDT, the beautiful boat, John Franklin (named in honor of the celebrated patriot of Luzerne) She is about 12 tons burthen, and is calculated for a sail-boat.

Improved Real Estate For Sale - Thomas WRIGHT, Wilkesbarre offers the following property in Luzerne Co. for sale:

#1 About acre, on the NE corner of bank and centre streets with a Tavern, Dwelling House, Store house and Stabling. This property now rents at $200 per ann.

#2 A Lot on said bank street nearly adjoining the above, containing 3 acres and 58 perches, whereon is erected a large three story Log House, unfinished

#3 A Lot containing about an acre, where upon the subscriber now lives situated nearly on the centre of said bank street and in one of the most pleasant situations in said town. There are on the said lot two Dwelling Houses, a neat framed Barn, and good Stabling. Said premises would rent for $120 per annum.

#4 A Lot (now in Clover) on the same street. Containing about 4 acres, adjoining Rosewell WELLES, Esq.

#5 An Out-Lot, containing five acres and some perches, with a Dwelling House thereon; which rents for $16 per annum

#6 A tract of Land, containing about 1000 acres, distant two miles from said town, which is now in the occupancy of several tenants. On said tract are erected a Grist-Mill, three stories high, 48 by 30 feet, containing two pair of Stones and three Boulds, in good order; a Distillery near the mill; also a Saw Mill and three good frame Barns thereon; a large quantity of clear land excellent meadows; the whole would rent for $600 dollars per annum.

Also, several other pieces of land in said Township.

In Pittstown:

#1 A Plantation adjoining the river about 5 miles from the county town, containing 150 acres, with two Dwelling Houses, one large frame Barn, 30 by 40 feet; on this tract is an established Ferry, to cross to Kingston; and 60 or 70 acres of clear land.

#2 100 Acres, adjoining the river, with a neat two story Frame House, Kitchen, Store house a large new frame Barn, 32 by 42 feet, with Shades and Stabling; about 3 acres of this tract with the improvements, now rent for $100 per annum, being occupied as a tavern and store by David BARNUM, Esq. The other part is occupied by a tenant on shares.

#3 Three Plantations all adjoining, eleven miles from Wilkesbarre, containing about 570 acres, with three Dwelling-Houses and a Barn on each; nearly 150 acres clear with a good proportion of meadow to each of them; the road from the Susquehannah to the Delaware goes through these farms; advantageously situated about one mile from the subscriber's forge.

#4 A Forge in good repair, with three Fires on a never failing stream (Lackawana) two miles from the confluence; with several thousand acres of good Wood Land in the vicinity and plenty of the best Bog Ore on the lands, also, a number of houses for the workmen.

Likewise, a number of other valuable improved Plantations, with Houses and Barns thereon, in several of the different townships. All the lands mentioned, are clear of any disputed titles, as may be seen in the Office of the State Commissioners under the Act of Assembly, of '99.

Also a Grist-Mill, in the town of Plymouth, three fourths of a mile from the river, in the heart of a flourishing settlement; the mill has two pair of stones, and about seventy acres of good land adjoining. In addition to all the advantages of situation of the above mentioned lands - the Turnpike Road from this place to Easton, will certainly go on the approaching summer, which will enrich the inhabitants of Luzerne.

On application, the subscriber will show the property, and propose the terms. One third of the purchase money will be expected on executing the deeds.

Bloomfield MILBOURNE married to Miss Hannah TUKESBURY, at Nicholson Township, by Rev. POLLEMUS (no date of marriage)

Melancholy Fact - Sometime about the 20th ult., a daughter (aged 4 years) of Tho's GILES, living on the waters of Meshoppen, in the Northern part of this county, went out to some Chestnut trees a little distance from the house to gather chestnuts. After an absence of half an hour, her mother called her, but received no answer. She went to the trees where her little daughter had gone but could not find her. She immediately alarmed her husband, who made an ineffectual search of near two hours for his lost child. The evening now approached, and the feeling of the unhappy parents can neither be imagined nor described. The neighbors (the nearest of whom are three miles distant) were called as early as possible to assist in the search. Fires were kept up during the night in various directions from the house, to frighten the wild beasts from that quarter, and the whole night and following day were spent in fruitless endeavors to find the little sufferer. The third day, about 120 persons renewed the search by forming themselves in a line, about 16 feet distant from each other; in this order they marched out from the house about three miles, and wheeling, returned; in this manner they completely examined every part of the wood where it was possible the child could have wandered - but no vestige of her could be found. The prevailing opinion of the people in the neighborhood is, that a Panther must have seized her, and frightened by the horns which blown immediately on the child's being missed has borne her off beyond the limits of their search. Although sheep and young cattle have frequently fallen a prey to these voracious animals, yet we believe no instance has been known since the settlement of the county, of any human being having been injured by them. We sincerely sympathize with the distressed parents in their peculiarly aggravating loss.

For Sale - Two Lots of Land containing about 400 acres, situated near the mouth of the Wysox, adjoining the river on the west side. Lots will be sold separate or together. There are two dwelling houses, two framed barns, a good Tanyard and a good flat for corn, good white oak for wheat, and a good swail for meadow sufficient to cut one hundred tons of hay, about fifty acres under good improvement - two peach orchards - and a number of apple trees that bear. Terms - One third of the purchase money must be paid down and for the remainder two years credit will be given. Samuel and Elisha COLE.

Strayed away from the subscriber about the 20th October, a red cow, 13 or 14 years old, small horns, leaning forward, supposed ot be gone to Newport back of the mountain. Whoever will bring her to the subscriber, shall be well paid for their trouble by Benjamin DRAKE, Wilkesbarre

John P. SCHOTT, having opened a House of Entertainment at his well known Stand, on the north-east corner of the Public Square - wishes a share of the public patronage. Those who think proper to call at his House, may be assured of his exertions to give satisfaction.

Caution - Whereas divers persons have made a practice of trading with a boy by the name of John FISH, who has lived with me from a child, and is now in his seventeenth year, and I have good reason to believe, have encouraged him in disobedience and dissipation until he has at length left my house and service, and is now strolling about the neighborhood. I hereby forbid all persons from making any bargain with him, trusting or harboring the said John FISH as they may expect to answer it at the penalty of the law. John PHILLIPS, Pittstown.

All persons indebted to John PHILLIPS by note or book are requested to make settlement by the 25th inst., and save cost.

Take Notice - I wish those who have any demands against the subscriber to call and exhibit their claims; before the 15th of March next, as I intend removing out of the State. As for those that are in my debt they can be sent for in an other way. Isaac D. TRIPP.

For Sale - A Farm situated in Hanover Township, about 4 miles from Wilkesbarre, containing 115 acres; well calculated for mowing, plowing &c. about 50 acres of land under good improvement. On the farm is a comfortable log house, 18 by 30 feet. The whole is well watered. Ishmael BENNET, Hanover

An Election was held at Easton, on Feb. 1st, for the appointment of Officers for the Easton and Wilkesbarre Turnpike Road. The following gentlemen were elected to serve for one year:

President: Samuel SITGREAVES, Esq., of Easton
Managers: Ebenezer BOWMAN, Lord BUTLER, Arnold COLT, Matthias HOLLENBACK, Lawrence MYERS and Wiliam ROSS, Esq's, all of Luzerne Co. William BARNETT, John HERSTER, Nicholas KERN, John ROSS, Peter SHINDER and Daniel WAGENER, Esq's, all of Northampton Co.
Treasurer: Thomas ALLIBORNE, Esq., of Philadelphia

Stephen, son of Thomas POTTER, aged about 19 years, left his father's house on the edge of the Great Swamp on Monday the 23rd ult., with change of clothes, to go to Wilsonville, Wayne Co. But from the severity of the weather, he perished before he reached the place of his destination. He had received a deep wound in one of his feet, from an axe last fall; and it is conjectured that although the wound has long since healed, yet in travelling his foot failed him. His cries were heard at some distance, but were mistaken for the noise of some wild beast, and no one went to his assistance. He was discovered next morning, about a mile and a half from Wilsonville, frozen stiff, with the spare shirt he had with him, wrapped around his body to shield him from the Frost.

On the 10th Feb. 1804, a Melancholy circumstance happened in the town of Orwell, Luzerne County, the house of Nathaniel HECOCK, took fire and consumed every article in it. Mr. HEACOCK was gone to Owego, NY and Mrs. HECOCK was on a visit to the sick, the children were at school. The character of unfortunate sufferers is such, that we hear the public are liberal in making up their loss.

At Sheshequin on Friday the 17th inst., David SMITH, a taylor, who had been for some time, in a state of intoxication, went to the river Susquehanna, in the time of a snow storm, and took off his hat, coat and jacket, hung them on a pole that projected from the bank over the ice, from thence he went to an air hole in the ice, and plunged himself in; there was a strong current, and the water about 5 feet deep, his body has not yet been found. (Feb. 23rd)

Legislation Bill #93 entitled "An act for annexing part of Luzerne County to the County of Lycoming." Was read for the first time by Mr. MACLAY, from the Committee appointed the 8th inst.

About a year since we mentioned the prevalence of a fever at Wysox and Sheshequin, which proved fatal to a number of the most promising young people of both sexes, in those neighborhoods. During the summer season the fever subsided, and the county recovered its usual degree of health; but the present winter has again introduced the unwelcome visit or, and the people on the waters of Tunkhannock are now subjected to its ravages. We have noted the deaths of a number who have fallen by its fury and have now to add those of Daniel BREWSTER, aged 25 and Mrs. Phebe DIXON, aged 33 years.

To Rent - From two to five years, a valuable Stand, with a dwelling house, barn and a ferry-boat, situated on the east side of the Susquehanna, at Keeler's Ferry. It is well situated for a Store or a Tavern and will be rented on reasonable terms by Gideon OSTERHOUT, Jr.

Taken up by the subscribers on the 4th April, inst., in the mouth of Shickshinny Creek, one barrel of Pork, marked E. S. The owner is desired to prove property, pay all charges and take it away. John and Peter KEISTER, Nescopeck

The bill for dividing this County has passed both Houses of the Legislature, and there is no doubt but the governor will give it his approbation; the object of this measure is to ruin the Connecticut claimants, by setting them off to a county where the officers and people are extremely bitter against the Yankee interest, and where the Intrusion and Territorial laws may be rigidly executed, and the unfortunate Yankees be persecuted without mercy. The division line runs from the state line, due South to the North East corner of Claverack, thence West and South around to the South West corner of said township, then West to the line that separated Lycoming and Luzerne; consequently all the settlements in the neighborhood of Sheshequin are lost to us.

A vast number of Rafts, Arks and Boats have descended the Susquehanna river the present spring. One Ark, belonging to Mr. IRWIN, of Newtown, has gone by, loaded with 150 bbls. Pork, 60 of Whiskey, and 100 of Flour. A Raft belonging to Mr. ANDROS, on which was a horse and about 20 bbls of Pork, unfortunately ran upon CATLIN'S stand in the night; the men were taken off by boats, but a part of the pork was lost, and the poor horse was not relieved for 48 hours, but was at length taken off totally blind

On Tuesday morning, the 10th inst, arrived here from Newtown, four large, beautiful, new boats - the Enterprize - Minerva- Chesapeake and Harmony, under the command of Capt. SKEAR. These Boats were each laden with 800 bushels of Wheat, and are the property of Mr. H. GOLDSBOROUGH, of that place. On Wednesday, the little fleet sailed for Baltimore. The enterprizing owner has our sincerest wished for a prosperous voyage.

Mr. G. left Newtown with a fifth Boat, the Intrepid; the evening after he sailed, four of his men attempted to remove her to place where they supposed she would remain secure through the night, but unfortunately the Boat filled and sunk - the cargo, consisting of 900 bushes of wheat was lost, and two men, Terrence M'MULLEN and a Mr. LEET were drowned.

The Boats, we understand, were insured at Baltimore.

A number of Arks have been loaded with Wheat, Fat Cattle and Fur, in the small streams that rise in the very heart of the Gennesse Country and gone on to the Chesapeake.

Peter MILLER, Blacksmith, Having opened a shop at Pittston solicits the favors of the public. Fire. On Wednesday morning last, between the hours of 8 and 9 o'clock, the House of Mrs. HEATH, (late Mrs. MORSE) of Plymouth, was discovered to be on FIRE; every exertion was made to save it, but in vain - the House, with a new store adjoining it, a great part of the house-hold goods and about 1000 bushels of

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for the integrity of the financial system and for the ability to detect and prevent fraud.

2. The second part of the document outlines the specific requirements for record-keeping. It states that all transactions must be recorded in a timely and accurate manner, and that the records must be maintained for a minimum of five years. It also discusses the importance of ensuring that the records are accessible and can be easily reviewed.

3. The third part of the document discusses the consequences of failing to comply with the record-keeping requirements. It states that individuals or organizations that fail to maintain accurate records may be subject to penalties, including fines and imprisonment. It also discusses the importance of cooperating with the authorities in the event of an investigation.

4. The fourth part of the document discusses the importance of ensuring that the records are secure and protected from unauthorized access. It states that individuals or organizations must take appropriate measures to ensure that the records are stored in a secure location and that access is restricted to authorized personnel only.

5. The fifth part of the document discusses the importance of ensuring that the records are accurate and complete. It states that individuals or organizations must ensure that all transactions are recorded in full and that the records are free from any errors or omissions. It also discusses the importance of regularly reviewing the records to ensure their accuracy.

6. The sixth part of the document discusses the importance of ensuring that the records are accessible and can be easily reviewed. It states that individuals or organizations must ensure that the records are stored in a format that is accessible and can be easily reviewed by the authorities. It also discusses the importance of ensuring that the records are available for inspection at any time.

7. The seventh part of the document discusses the importance of ensuring that the records are maintained for a minimum of five years. It states that individuals or organizations must ensure that the records are not destroyed or disposed of before the five-year period has expired. It also discusses the importance of ensuring that the records are properly archived and stored.

8. The eighth part of the document discusses the importance of ensuring that the records are accurate and complete. It states that individuals or organizations must ensure that all transactions are recorded in full and that the records are free from any errors or omissions. It also discusses the importance of regularly reviewing the records to ensure their accuracy.

9. The ninth part of the document discusses the importance of ensuring that the records are accessible and can be easily reviewed. It states that individuals or organizations must ensure that the records are stored in a format that is accessible and can be easily reviewed by the authorities. It also discusses the importance of ensuring that the records are available for inspection at any time.

10. The tenth part of the document discusses the importance of ensuring that the records are maintained for a minimum of five years. It states that individuals or organizations must ensure that the records are not destroyed or disposed of before the five-year period has expired. It also discusses the importance of ensuring that the records are properly archived and stored.

grain were consumed. Thus, at one unfortunate blow, is the sufferer reduced from affluence, almost to poverty. Thus has she lost, in one hour, the product of many years unremitted industry. It is hoped that the usual benevolence of the inhabitants of Wyoming will be exercised in relieving her misfortunes.

28 April 1804

Navigation of the Susquehannah - In our last paper we stated that 550 Rafts had past this place on their way to market; since that publication, about 50 more have gone down, besides a number of Arks. It will not therefore, be far from correct to state that the whole number of Rafts which have descended the river, from, and above this place the present spring, will about to 600; and the number of Arks to 100. These numbers will be considered great, when we state that in 1796, only 30 Rafts wend down from and above this place; and not a single Ark until the year 1800.

On Friday evening, April 20th a Boat belonging to Daniel MONTGOMERY of Danville, stove at Hunter's Falls, nine miles above Harrisburg; 750 bushels of wheat being the whole of her lading were lost and three men were drowned, one of whom commanded the Boat; two of them had large families, and the third was a young man lately married.

We last week mentioned the distressing fire at Plymouth, and stated that the property destroyed belonged to Mrs. HEATH. We have since been informed that about half of it belonged to Horace MORSE, who will, it is hoped, share the generosity of the public.

Asa WINTER, died in this town very suddenly, aged 63 years. He rose on the morning of the 24th inst, apparently well, soon after rising he complained of a severe pain in his breast, and of being almost blind; his wife advised him to lie down, which, in attempting to do, he fell upon the bed and expired in a few minutes.

$2 Reward! Ran away from the subscriber on the 21st inst., Lutana HAZARD, a servant girl, 12 or 13 years old; she had on when she went away, a black Camblet petticoat, and a blue Florentine short-gown; whoever will return the said girl to her master shall receive the above reward. All persons are forbid harboring or trusting her on the penalty of the law. John P. SCHOTT, Wilkesbarre

We are sorry to state that Howes GOLDSBOROUGH, of Newtown, NY has lost two Arks loaded with wheat, near Havre de Grace. One of them after being run to the Chesapeake Bay was sunk by the violence of the waves, the other broke from her fastening in the night and has undoubtedly gone to pieces. We learn too with regret that James IRWIN, of the same place has lost an Ark, about 800 bushels of wheat and a number of barrels of Pork. The dangers of navigating the Susquehanna below this place, are so numerous, that every prudent man would rather take the price for his produce, which we could afford to give for it here, if the Turnpike road was finished, then run the risk of proceeding further down with it.

$10 Reward - Broke Jail on the night of the 1st inst., Joshua ADAMS, who was confined for debt. Said ADAMS is about 28 years of age - 5 feet 10 inches high - has short hair and is stout built; had on when he went away a short blue coat, swans-down vest, and leather overalls. Whoever will apprehend said ADAMS and deliver him to the Jail in Luzerne Co., shall be entitled to the above reward with reasonable charges. Eleazer MARBLE, Jailor, Wilkesbarre

On the 2nd inst. Russel WINSHIP, belonging about 10 miles below Chenango Point, NY was unfortunately killed by the accidental discharge of a rifle, at Dunkers town, Lancaster Co. He had been down the river upon a raft, and was returning home, when as one of his companions who was carrying a rifle, was walking behind him, the rifle went off and the ball lodged in the head of the helpless WINSHIP, and he expired instantly. A coroner's inquest sat upon the body and gave a verdict of accidental death.

May 24, 1804 - Died - At Meshoppen, suddenly, on the morning of the 22nd inst., Major Prince ALDEN, in the 86th year of his age. The afternoon preceding his death, he walked into an adjoining room, and was as usual quite cheerful, he remarked however, that there was but a step between him and death. It may with propriety be said that he died without disease, other than that of age; the natural and animal functions were much less disturbed than the vital; his pulse, for some days, were only about 32 in a minute, the heart appears to have lost its excitability, and ceased to be stimulated by the excitement given. "His lamp is gone out," he has had a full share of life and enjoyed it with cheerfulness and reputation. Where's he alas! who saw him natal morn, Or where is he who saw his youthful day. The Folio's blank from which his loaf is torn, The hand of time has swept the last away."

7 July 1804

The birth-day of American Independence was, as usual, celebrated by the Federal Republicans of Wilkesbarre and the neighboring towns, with festivity and joy. An excellent dinner was provided on the occasion by Mr. ARNDT, of which about 40 gentlemen partook, under an arbour on the bank of the Susquehannah. Arnold COLT, Esq., was elected President of the day and Maj. William SLOCUM, Vice-President; after dinner a number of Toasts were drank, accompanied with songs, huzzas and other proofs that the ever memorable era, that gave the nations of the earth a sister, and Americans their freedom, was remembered with becoming sensibility and pleasure. The Democrats dined together at Mr. HANCOCK'S where if we may judge from their rosy cheeks and smiling countenances, they had been partaking of good cheer. In the evening a number of both parties united, in a dance at Mr. FELL'S.

The following melancholy accident occurred in the vicinity of Huntington, on Monday, the 25th ultimo. A young lad, a son of Jarius HARRISON, aged three years and four months was unfortunately drowned. The child had crossed Fishing Creek to where his grandfather was hoeing potatoes; after playing by him a short time he went down by the side of the creek, where he was immediately followed; but too late - the child was missing; a number of the neighbors instantly collected, who with the father of the lad, searched the creek diligently for an hour and an half, when they found him at the bottom of it, under the top of an old tree which had fallen, and 130 rods from the place where he must have fell; many experiments were tried to restore him to life, but without effect; the child was remarkable for his activity and knowledge.

Amos SEWARD, died at Huntington, on the 25th ult., after a long and painful illness. He has left a wife and four small children to lament his loss.

On the night of the 30th June, the bridge over Fishing Creek, in Huntington, fell; it may be considered as remarkable that the bridge had been crossed with teams, heavily loaded, almost every day previous to its falling, and that it fell in the night when there was no pressure upon it and no immediate cause can be assigned for the accident.

Wyalusing, July 12th - On the 9th inst., the following melancholy accident happened in this place. As Nathaniel PARKS was passing thro' his field just after a severe thunder gust, as he was approaching a large pine tree, the lightning struck it, which shivered it from the top to the bottom, the whole came to the ground, the end of a large pine near sixty feet in height, struck Mr. PARKS on the head, which in an instant put a period to his existence. A man and a boy were plowing at the distance of about ten rod from the spot, who were both stunned with the explosion. Mr. PARKS has left a wife and eight small children to lament his untimely end; he was a sober, honest and industrious man.

A Quantity of Wheat For Sale, at the house of Captain Peleg TRACY, by Salmon BRADSHAW, Wilkesbarre

An Act for annexing part of Luzerne County to the County of Lycoming (See p. 2-4-b)

We learn that on Friday the 3rd inst a most melancholy accident happened at Braintrim. William PARSONS, with his brother, and John WHEELER went into the woods together for the purpose of hunting, and that they might have a greater chance of finding game they agreed to separate about thirty rods from each other, and then to pursue the same course in parallel lines and Mr. WHEELER with the brother of Mr. PARSONS went off to the left hand. After they had proceeded on their course about 40 rods, Wm. PARSONS saw on his right hand (the opposite way from which Mr. WHEELER and his brother had gone) something black moving in the bushes; believing it to be a bear that he saw, he levelled his rifle a little below what he supposed to be the head of the bear, and fired. Merciful Heavens! What must have been his emotions, when on approaching the spot he beheld his companion writhing in the agonies of death. The fatal ball had entered the breast of the unfortunate WHEELER, and came out near the spinal bone. PARSONS remained by his dying friend while his brother alarmed the relatives and neighbors of the deceased, but they were unable to render him any assistance; he lived from ten o'clock, at which time he received the wound, until two P.M. when he expired on in the 21st year of his age.

Drowned - At Sheshequin, on Sunday the 29th July, Miss Cyrene, daughter of John DROWN, in the 18th year of her age.

Miss Rebecca, aged 12 years and Wm., aged 7 years, children of Mathew ROGERS -as they were fording the Susquehannah River on horse back from an island to which they had been in pursuit of cherries, the horse stumbled and threw them all into the river, Cyrene held by the mane and the two children held by her; the mare went down the river about 12 rods before she struck the bottom, when she cleared herself from Cyrene, who was on her feet, holding the little boy in her arms, and Rebecca was still holding by her. In this situation Cyrene exclaimed to the children on the shore, "I can come out myself but cannot bring the children," and they then almost instantly disappeared. Notwithstanding the peculiar situation of Cyrene, it did not paralyze her exertions; she was calm and made every effort to the last to preserve the children. The children were taken out of the water in twenty or thirty minutes. Cyrene was in nearly an hour. It is to be regretted that no timely and judicious prescriptions were given, agreeable to the directions of the various humane societies, for restoring suspended animation - they are gone - a heavy and grievous affliction to their parent and relatives - a solemn admonition to us all. Their funeral was attended on Monday following, and a very pathetic and appropriate discourse was delivered by the Rev. HUTCHINSON, to the numerous and solemn audience.

On the desire of Capt. TAYLOR, Executor of Constant SEARLE, Esq., I send you a short account of his sickness and death: if you can see it admissible, with your to give it a place in your useful paper, by so doing you will oblige the friends of the deceased, and perhaps a number of your readers. Corn's ATHERTON, Pittston. Constant SEARLE, Esq., of Providence, departed this life on the 4th inst. 1804, aged 45 years, after a long and painful sickness of eight months, with a complication of disorders: he was first attacked with an obstinate dysentery which baffled the power of medicine, and skill of the physicians that attended him, for some months, when it began to abate, and hopes were entertained of his recovery; but he was soon attacked with high dropical symptoms, which became distressing and alarming; but by the exertion of an old experienced physician, the symptoms of that painful disorder were soon extinguished, and hopes again entertained of his recovery; but this hope was again soon destroyed by the formidable appearance of a large Abscess forming near the center of his posteriors, and in a few days formed a suppuration, and discharged a great quantity of fetid acrid matter: and became very alarming, and fears were again entertained of a speedy dissolution; but by the faithful attendance and care of his physician favorable symptoms began to encourage the patient and friends that he would recover; but alas! This like all the rest of their hopes soon vanished; about an hour before his death, an Abscess which had formed in his body, near the kidneys burst with a noise distinctly heard by himself and wife, which discharged at his mouth, and soon terminated in his death. Thus ended the life of a useful member of society. Whatever his practices may have been in the common tenor of his life: in the course of his sickness he appeared to be engaged candidly to examine into the doctrine of the Christian religion, to find some sure support in the trying hour of death which he had reason to believe was fast approaching: he conversed freely with Christian friends on the subject, and obtained an unshaken belief in the doctrines of the gospel of Christ: he continued firm in his last moments, and was perfectly composed, conversing with his friends till within five or six minutes of his last breath and then without a struggle fell asleep in Jesus, as it were with a smile, on closing his eyes. He has left a wife and seven children to bemoan the loss of a kind husband, a tender and affectionate parent. The funeral solemnities were attended by a numerous concourse of relatives and friends. A very agreeable sermon was preached on the occasion by Reverend William Bishop. He was interred in Pittston on the 6th inst.

1 Sept. 1804

The following extraordinary accident happened last week at the forge in Providence Township: Capt. Ebenezer SLOCUM, part owner of the Capowse mills, was at work in his forge - the trip-hammer had been working, and the workmen, to stop it, attempted to close the gate, but the water had carried a root under it, which prevented them. Capt. SLOCUM immediately stripped off his clothes, and went down into the flume where the water was eight feet deep, for the purpose of removing the root, he secured himself with one hand by holding fast to the perpendicular post which raises and shuts the gate, and with the other tied to remove the root, but without effect; he then altered his position, relinquishing his hold upon the gate post, with the intention of pulling upon the root with both hands - at this moment his feet slipped and his left leg was drawn under the gate by the force of the water, and he was unable to extricate himself; during this time the water passing through the sluice, as the gate was partly raised, forced the wheel slowly round, and the buckets which came within a few inches of the apron of the flume on which Capt. SLOCUM'S leg lay were tearing it in a most shocking manner. In this distressing situation Capt. S. raised his hands and put them together as a sign that he was in distress. The people immediately confined the hammer and by that means stopped the wheel, and Providentially in such a manner that one bucket had just gone off his leg and the next bucket which was coming round had not yet struck it, (otherwise he must have been confined there until he expired.) When the wheel stopped Capt. S. felt a momentary hope that he should be saved, but owing to the long time he had been under water and the bruises he had received, he fainted. At this instant one of the workmen raised the gate which had been partly closed and Capt. SLOCUM was presently seen floating down the race way, below the mill; he was taken up apparently dead and a variety of means used which fortunately brought him to life. He is now under the Doctor's care and in a fair way to recover. Since the accident the water has been drawn from the flume, and the aperture through which Capt. SLOCUM was forced by the pressure of the water, has been measured, and found to be only six inches and an eighth of an inch in height. Capt. SLOCUM is a man who in thickness exceeds the middle size. Perhaps a more extraordinary escape from so dangerous a situation has never been experienced. We congratulate the family on the preservation of a worthy husband and father, and the public on the safety of a valuable member of society.

Cesar Rodney WILSON, late of Dover, Delaware married to Miss Harriot TRACEY, late of Norwich, Conn., in this town on Thursday evening last by Joseph WRIGHT, Esq.

Died at Cayuga Village, NY, Doctor Amos FRANKLIN, son of Col. John FRANKLIN, of Athens, aged 28 years. He was sick about three weeks with the remitting fever, and appeared to be recovering when he was suddenly attacked with a discharge of blood by stool which continued about five days. It is judged that the discharge was between two and three gallons of blood as fresh as though taken from a vein, his disorder baffled the skill of seven able physicians, the discharge of blood ceased about four days before his death; he was cheerfully resigned to the will of Heaven, and on the morning of the 11th inst., expired. As he live respected, so he died lamented, by all those who knew him, he has left an affectionate wife and a son about 18 months old, bereaved of a king husband and an indulgent father. (Oct. 24th)

Philadelphia - At August Session, 1801, John FRANKLIN, Elisha SATTERLEE and John JENKINS were indicted in Luzerne Co. for combining and conspiring, for purpose of conveying, possessing and settling on certain lands within the limits of said county, under a certain pretended title, not derived from the authority or Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, or the late Proprietors of Pennsylvania, before the revolution.

The same persons with Joseph BILES, were at the same sessions, and by the same bill, indicted for combining and conspiring, for the purpose of laying out townships, by persons not appointed, or acknowledged by the laws of this Commonwealth.

At November Sessions, 1801, the defendants plead not guilty, and the indictment was marked on the docket - "Removed by Certiorari at the instance of the defendants."

16 Feb. 1805

On Sunday morning, Feb. 10th, Col. Ezekiel HYDE died in the 34th year of his age. Few men have ever united more of the social virtues in their characters than the deceased. An the benevolence of his heart and the urbanity of his manners secured him the esteem of a large circle of acquaintance. In 1801, he was elected Colonel of a Regiment of Militia. In 1803 he was chosen one of the Commissioners of Luzerne County, and soon after received the appointment of Post-master of Wilkesbarre. With these proofs of the public confidence - with a constitution peculiarly robust and healthy, and in the prime of life - his prospects appeared unusually bright; but his day has closed at noon, and all his prospects are lost in death. His decease was a tumour in his left side, of the Steatomatous kind, which after subjecting him to great distress and debility which he suffered with the utmost fortitude, terminated his life by mortification. As he was a brother of the Masonic family, the Lodge in this town interred him with the usual honors.

Maj. MATHEWSON, departed us this day, half past 11 A.M., his funeral tomorrow, with military honors.
(Extracted of a letter from a friend at Athens, of April 10th)

Daniel ALLEN, died at Towandee, 25th April, of a mortification in his foot, in the 87th year of his age. He was one of the first settlers in the Susquehannah purchase; professed experimental christianity, when he was more than 80 years old, and was then baptised on the profession of his faith; and at last died in peace.

Doctor Uriah LAWRENCE, died on Wednesday the 3rd inst. at Towandee, in the 28th year of his age. He left an affectionate wife to mourn the loss of a kind husband, and a child about 3 months old. As a Physician, much was expected from the promising talents and thorough qualifications of Doct. LAWRENCE. He had lately settled at Towandee, but began to have such a run of practice, as convinced the public of his usefulness and skill. But Death is no respecter of persons, and tho' a Physician, the Doct. Could not heal himself, but after a short illness of eight days, resigned his soul to God who make it. His remains were interred in the burial ground in New Sheshequin, attended by a large collection of people.

Acts Passed During the 1804-1805 Session of the Legislature of Pennsylvania - 62 Acts (to be continued) (See p. 2-1-t)

Last Sunday the notorious Stephen ARNOLD passed through this place, on his way to Otsego Co., NY. He was well Ironed and accompanied by two stout men as a guard. I think there is no doubt but he will arrive safe to the place he belongs, where I expect they will deal out to him the justice he has merited. (Extract of a letter from a gentleman at Tioga Point dated May 16.)

The Public are respectfully informed that the subscriber has taken the house, the first door below Mr. ARNDTS - where he carries on the Business of Tayloring & Mantau Making. Those Ladies and Gentlemen who may favor him with their custom, may depend on having their work done with elegance and dispatch. Joseph BACKENSTONE, Wilkesbarre

Wool Carding. The Subscriber having erected Machines for the purpose of Breaking and Carding Wool into rolls at HARTSHOUGH'S Mills in Kingston, which will (no doubt) be of Public utility, as the rolls will be of a much better quality, than those carded in the common way, the cloth will be more smooth and even, and not liable to cockle in fulling; one quarter more may be spun with the same ease and in less time than is required by common rolls, they are not liable to the least injury from being carried any distance. The Wool must be send ready packed and greased as usual with a sheet or blanket to put the rolls in. The price will be 10 cents for white, 12 1/2 for mixed wool per pound. People sending their wool form a distance, will please to leave it at Mr. JACKSON'S where it will be carried and returned weekly. The best attention will by paid by James BEERS. One pound of Grease to ten of Wool is sufficient; hogs lard, or other soft grease would be preferred.

Public Vendue - will be exposed to Sale on Friday the 28th June next, at the house of John P. ARNDT in Wilkesbarre, as the property of Ezekiel HYDE, deceased, the following articles - One Stud Horse, named Nimrod, and known generally by the name of Col. JENKINS' horse, two hair trunks, 100 boxes of Rawson's bitters, 18 of Itch Ointment, 40 of Anti-Billious Pills, and a quantity of Vegetable Elixer, Worm Powder and other Medicines, a Slay and Harness, two surveying Compasses, 1 case of protracting instruments and furniture of different kinds &c. Those who purchase articles amounting to a sum greater than 5 dollars shall be entitled to six months credit, by giving a bond with approved security; attendance will be given on the above named day by John EVANS for John HYDE, Admin.

Communicated - Departed this transitory life on Tuesday evening the 4th inst., Sebastian STROPE, aged 70. He was one of the first settlers of this country. His sickness which continued near three months, he bore with Christian fortitude and died with a hope of salvation. He has left an aged widow and a number of children to lament his irreparable loss. (no location listed)

Public Vendue - Will be sold at the house of John HORTON, about 2 miles below Wilkesbarre on 19th June: 150 acres wood land, a house lot, 15 acres of rye on the ground, together with a number of other articles. Jacob ROSENCRANS.

22 June 1805

Communicated - Mrs. Mary STEVENS, of Towandee, died of a short and sore sickness on the 25th ult, in the 38th year of her age. She was a worthy person and descendant from the MITCHELTREES, an ancient and respectable family in Paxton, Dauphin Co. Her funeral was the next day and sermon by Rev. Thomas SMILIE, burial were interred near her former dwelling. She leaves a husband and six small children. On the act of committing the body to its depository, the motherless children appeared to have such sensations as kindled the sympathy of the people, and exhibited a scene of sorrow, greater than what we usually see in like cases. She has left in all behind her eight children and one of them an infant of a little more than two months old; as well as her husband to feel the loss they have sustained. [Note --different number of children listed]

6 July 1805

Shocking Cruelty - At the April court of Quarter Sessions, Northampton Co., Samuel DEPUI, of the Borough of Easton, was indicted for an assault and battery, on his apprentice, Elizabeth FULMER, aged about 12 years of age. The defendant admitted the case set out in the bill by pleading guilty and submitting to the court. Several witnesses told of the abuse to the child. When this monster was called upon to answer these charges, he did not pretend to deny any of the facts, but endeavored to palliate them, by saying some chestnuts and a few apples had been missing, which he suspected this girl had taken: that he had send her with cold victuals in the cellar, and some of it was missing; that sometimes she did not hear; and that he would have to call her two or three times to the table to eat. The public indignation was highly excited and an exemplary punishment was eagerly looked for. When to the astonishment of everybody, this sentence was pronounced: That he should pay a fine of $15 - be imprisoned for 10 days and give security for his good behavior for one year, in the sum of $50. As this court had passed much more severe judgment, in cases of common assault and battery, it was difficult to say in the conclusion, whether, DEPUI, or the court, was most the object of public dissatisfaction. It was understood that the President of the court was desirous of inflicting a more exemplary punishment. We are happy, however, to state, that the court thought proper to remove this unfortunate child from her merciless master. (See p. 3-2-b)

Two Cents Reward - Ranaway from the Subscriber, a servant girl, Anna HOLMS or WEEKS, about 15 or 16 years old. Whoever takes up said girl, and will return her to the subscriber, shall receive the above reward, and no charges paid. John BURY, Buttermilk Falls

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions and activities. It emphasizes that this is crucial for ensuring transparency and accountability in the organization's operations.

2. The second part of the document outlines the various methods and tools used to collect and analyze data. It highlights the need for consistent and reliable data collection processes to support effective decision-making.

The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that every entry, no matter how small, should be recorded to ensure the integrity of the financial statements. The second part of the document provides a detailed breakdown of the company's revenue for the quarter. It shows that sales have increased by 15% compared to the previous quarter, which is a positive trend. The third part of the document discusses the company's expenses and how they have been managed. It notes that while some costs have increased, overall expenses have remained within budget. The fourth part of the document provides a summary of the company's financial position at the end of the quarter. It concludes that the company is in a strong financial position and is well-positioned for continued growth.

Fire! The dwelling houses of Naphila HURLBUT and Doct. W. H. SMITH, of Pittston, were last evening consumed by fire. [See next paper]

30 May 1806

We last week mentioned the Fire at Lackawanna, by which the dwelling houses of Doct. SMITH and Mr. HURLBUT were destroyed. The house of Mr. HURLBUT was two stories high, large and new. It first took fire about 4 o'clock in the afternoon, and the flames spread so rapidly that nothing valuable could be saved. It immediately communicated to a barn, and the house of Doct. SMITH, the articles in which we are happy to learn were preserved. The loss is ruinous to Mr. HURLBUT and severe to the Doctor. Those who delight to do good and relieve the distresses of th their fellow men, have now an opportunity of exercising the choicest of the virtues. The benevolent we are sure will not let so favorable an opportunity pass without "doing as they would be done by."

John LANNING married to Mrs. Polly DEEHONG, in this town on Monday Evening last, by William ROSS, Esq.

Fire at Towanday

We look upon it our duty to communicate to the public the following catastrophe, with an expectation that many will commiserate the distresses of their fellow men, and with hopes that in future all may be inspired with watchfulness against, and care concerning, the element_ we have named above.

Monday the 5th inst. was the day of our company training, in Canton Township, Luzerne County, and on that account the greater part of the men were met near the center of the settlement. The people for some time had been in fear of fire, the weather being very dry, and fires out in many places, to burn the stuff off the ground, (common in new settlements,) but a small shower that fell this morning seemed to ease their minds; however, a hot sun arose, and about noon the strong west wind with it, rendered everything combustible and the devouring element broke bounds in three different parts of the settlement which was attended with the following consequences: First - In the upper end of the settlement the barns of Henry SEGAR and Elihu KNIGHT with all their fences and the fences of the adjacent farms were reduced to ashes and ruins. Second - About midway down in the township, the barns of Sterling HOLCOMB, Hugh HOLCOMB, Alpheus HOLCOMB and George HEAD, with all their fences shared the same fate, and it was only owing to the timely aid of men who were alarmed with it, at the exercising, that the houses were saved; some of the barns were good buildings.

Third - Lower down still, Mr. Daniel ALLEN was also from home and the fire broke out to the windward of his farm, while there was none but Mrs. ALLEN to make any defense against it; she tried to stop it by opening gaps in the fences, but this availed little, for the fire flew from tree to tree across the fields and very soon the barn and house both on fire; a neighboring man and his wife now came forwards and their united exertions saved a good part of the bed and body cloathing from the flames, (some nevertheless was burned afterwards,) but all the rest of the household furniture was lost in the house. The fences, house, barn and all, being on fire at once, raised such a flame, heat and smoke, that the family were forced to retreat and save their lives and what they had preserved from ruin, under the bank of Towanday Creek, which was close by. On this which was a pleasant and fertile farm, we now see a scene of desolation. The house, barn, all the fences, a cow that was in the barnyard, the bees, a good nursery, part of the orchard are all in ashes and ruins. So uncertain are things in this world that they may go in a moment. Mr. ALLEN had been in flourishing circumstances, but now for himself, and a large family, one of which is his aged widow mother, there is not roof of his own to live under; however, we believe the neighbors will not forget him, but will help him what they can in this needy time. It would be hard to estimate the whole losses of that fatal day among us, but we know it must be very great, yet we would wish to turn our thought to heaven with thankfulness, while we announce that although many were in danger, there is not one life lists. I have endeavored in the above to draw up a plain account of the sad disasters that have taken place here, and if you please to give it a place in your useful paper, you'll oblige not only me, but the sufferers also. Thomas SMILEY.

Anniversary of St. John - The Members of Lodge No. 61 are invited to attend a meeting of said Lodge, in Wilkesbarre, the 24th inst. at 9 o'clock A. M. A general invitation is also given to all Craftsmen who can make it convenient, at attend. S. H. WALLIS, A. JACK and T. GRAHAM, Committee of Arrangement.

Sheriff's Sale - To be held 30th inst. - Land situated in Plymouth Township, seized and taken in execution as the suit of Simon PARK, and will be sold as the property of Nathan PARISH.

Estate of Ephraim KIRBY (late of Litchfield, Conn.), request payments. Thomas DYER, Adm'r., Wilkesbarre

John EBBERT, informs the public that he has commenced the Saddling Business, in Wilkesbarre at the house of Clark BEEBE a few rods north of the Meeting House, where every article in the line of his business will be furnished on short notice, and on reasonable terms. He has furnished himself with a good stock of materials and those who employ him may depend on having their work well done.

20 June 1806

Laws of the Borough of Wilkesbarre - An Act For the Collection of a Tax Passed June 10th. (See p. 3-1-t)

The Subscribers have obtained a Patent from the United States, for the exclusive right of using and vending their newly invented, Washing Machine, and they now offer the rights for Towns, counties, of States, for Sale on moderate terms. This machine is altogether superior to any other ever invented to facilitate the necessary and usually laborious exercise of Washing. A child of 13 years old, with the utmost ease, by merely turning a small crank, can wash in tow hours, as much as a woman in the usual manner can in a day. Not half the soap is required, and no injury is done to the clothes. Those who wish to avail themselves of this excellent invention will please to apply to the Subscribers in Wilkesbarre. Reuben BUCK and John P. ARNDT, Proprietors, Wilkesbarre.

27 June 1806

Eclipse of the Sun on 16th inst. report. (See p. 3-2-m)

Estate of Ransley BILLINGS, late of Wilkesbarre Township, requests payments. Huldah BILLINGS and Cornelius CORTRIGHT, Adm'rs.

3 July 1806

$20 Reward - Stolen out of the Stable of the Subscriber last night a sorrel Horse between 14 and 15 hands high, bald face; it is fully ascertained that the deed is done by one John KELLEY, an Irishman, about 40 years of age, has much of the brogue, and notorious liar. He has a wife, or woman with him, and two girls about 8 and 9 years old. Whoever takes up said thief and lodges him in Easton Goal, Northampton County, and delivers the horse to me, shall receive the above reward and reasonable charges. Thos. CRAIG, Towamensing Twp., Northampton Co.

Strayed or Stolen, from the Subscriber on the night of the 1st June, a dark brown Mare, about seven years old, a square trotter, has white hairs about her main and tail, a star in her forehead, and one white hind foot. Whoever will return her or give information where the said mare can be found, shall be handsomely rewarded by me. Eliphalet MASON, Towandee.

The Subscribers inform their friends and Public, that they carry on the Cooper and Tin Business in all branches, and can have Stills and Worms of all sizes, ready at the shortest notice, and on the most reasonable terms for Cash, and a general assortment of tin ware always on hand. All kinds of copper and tin ware repaired in the best manner. Old Copper, Brass and Pewter taken in exchange. GALLAGHER & THOMPSON, Union Street, Wilkesbarre.

Caution to the Public - Whereas I, Junia PRESTON, of Huntington have formerly advertised my wife, Artimetia, forbidding all persons from harboring or trusting her on my account; but on her promising to become a virtuous and obedient wife, I had been duped to recall the said advertisement, &c. But in defiance of all her sacred promises, she has contrary to my wishes, contracted debts and eloped from my bed and board; now for the sake of my innocent children, I am induced to forbid all persons from harboring or trusting her on my account, as I will not pay any debts of her contracting after this date. Junia PRESTON, Huntington.

Doct. George W. TROTT, of this town, to Miss Sally MARVIN, at Norwich, Conn. (no marriage date)

Sheriff's Sale - To be held 21st inst. - Land situated in Salem Township, seized and taken in execution as the suit of Jabez ADAMS and Putnam CATLIN and will be sold as the property of Samuel VANHORN.

In consideration of reports having spread to the injury of Doct. Samuel HAYDEN, viz. That he the said HAYDEN had been carnally intimate with my wife and other women in this town. I therefore from the above consideration, do, openly, publicly and frankly declare that I have no knowledge of his having been guilty of any of the above reports or accusations, and therefore acquit him as innocent. Witness my hand, Junia PRESTON, Huntington. Teste., Phinehas SHEPHERD, Samuel KINNEY, jun.

$10 Reward - Ran away from the subscriber, on the 3rd inst., James KNOX, a lad whom I had hired two months. He borrowed of me, and stole away a grey mare, about 6 years old, 14 hands high, - her head remarkable large, and her forehead round and full, on the top of her head is a sear, recently made by a stone, she is a natural prancer, and had a long switch tail, never having been docked. The boy was barefoot, ad on a pair of striped linen trowsers, a grey woolen homemade vest, and a nankeen jacket. He is dark complexion, and about 17 years old. A small spotted dog followed him. Whoever will take up said boy and mare and return them to me, shall be paid the above reward, or for either the mare or boy $5, and all necessary charges. John WORT, Kingston

Melancholy Catastrophe. On Sunday morning last, in consequence of some trifling dispute, at the house of Daniel LEBO in the Borough of Sunbury, between Charles MAUS, Esq., and Jacob WIDNER, Esq., the former discharged a pistol at the latter - the ball entered above the groin and lodged near the back bone. MAUS has been committed to jail, and the last accounts we had from there, say, there is very little hopes of WIDNER'S recovery.

A small Garden Hoe, forked at one end, was lost about 3 weeks since. The person who has found it, and will return it to this Office, shall be generously rewarded by The Printer (Charles MINER)

18 July 1806

Farming - Among the farmers of Wilkesbarre and Kingston, a noble strife has arisen, which shall raise the most grain. In both towns there are a number of farmers who have from 70 to 100 acres of English grain this season. The crops which they are now reaping are unusually fine, and promise richly to reward the toil of the husbandman. (p. 3-1-t)

A young lad, whose name is BILLINGS, and lives at the Plains, suffered a most unfortunate accident a few days ago. He was riding a horse, that was ploughing between corn, while an older boy held the plough. The horse being young and skittish took fright at something and ran away. BILLINGS fell and the point of the coulter caught him in his side and dragged him two rods, when it disengaged itself from him by tearing its way through his body! That the lad lives in most extraordinary; but he is I learn with pleasure likely to recover.

Estate of Rudolph FOX, late of Wysox Twp., requests payments. Daniel FOX, Adm'r., Wysox.

Caution - Whereas my wife, Desire, had eloped from my bed and board, and has conducted in other respects in a disorderly manner. Now this is to forewarn all persons not to harbor or trust the said Desire, on my account, as I will pay no debts of her contracting, nor hold myself bound to any of her bargains after this date. Joshua SABIN, Rush. July 15, 1806.

W. H. SANDERSON, informs the Public that he has commenced the Cabinet Business, in all its varieties; at his shop in Wilkesbarre, one door below Mr. COLT'S. those persons who are desirous of getting Furniture, may be supplied either with Mahogany, Cherry or Walnut.

Widow Polly BUTLER died (no death date)

A young woman came to this village a day or two ago, who is now, by the goodness of Col. HOLLENBACK, at his house. She arrived at Wilmington about three weeks ago, from England, in the ship Hanover, and from thence proceeded to Croswick, NJ, where she expected to have found William SMITH, her uncle. She says he had written to her to come to him at that place, but on arriving there she was told he had removed to Luzerne County. Her name is Ann CLARE, and is a native of Sutton, in the neighborhood of BIRMINGHAM, from which place her uncle emigrated. These circumstances are mentioned with the hope that they may meet the eye of Mr. SMITH, that the fair wanderer may find her friend whom to visit, she had taken so long a journey. The Printers at Northumberland, Lycoming and Northampton, will have the gallantry and goodness to give this article an insertion in their Gazettes.

For Sale and possession given in April next, the farm on which the Subscriber now lives, situated in Braintrim Twp., on the Susquehannah River, containing 300 acres - forty of which are under good improvement. The land is well divided for the plow or for meadow, and is well watered and timbered. ON the premises is an orchard of about 200 young fruit trees, just beginning to bear. And a good Dwelling House and Barn. The post road from Wilkesbarre to Tioga Point, runs through the farm. This property will be sold low and the terms be made easy to the purchaser. H. V. CHAMPION. If this property is not sold by next April, it will be leased.

7 Nov. 1806

In the early part of October last, David BURNES, of Clifford Twp., this county, with his daughter and a little son about 4 years old, went into the woods after Chestnuts, about half a mile from his house. The lad growing uneasy at his stay, cried to go home, and Mr. BURNES bid his daughter to take him to the path and show him the way to the house. When Mr. BURNES returned, he found his little boy had not been at home, and immediately went out in search of him, and the nearest neighbors were called to assist; but night coming on - the cold dews of evening descended with the darkness, and the father was obliged to return with the sad tidings to his disconsolate wife. Who can conceive the anguish of the parents Who can imagine the sufferings of the child? In the bosom of the forest - cold and hungry - his only bed the damp earth - and the fond lullaby of a mother, exchanged for the rude howlings of the wolf - his only covering the heavens - and exposed every moment to become the prey of some of the savages of the wilderness! The hours on opiate swings, to the sleepless parents, passed heavily away; at length the morning dawned and the search was renewed, by the father and as many of the neighbors as could be gathered - the day passed, and the succeeding one, - a hundred men scoured the woods in every direction where possibly the child could have strayed - the pulse of hope beat languid, and the awful anxiety for the sufferings of the child was only relieved by the dreadful certainty, that he was dead. After the sixth day, hope yielded to despair, and the search was abandoned.

Elder Jacob DRAKE, died at Bedford on the 4th inst., in the 75th year of his age, and the 42nd of his ministry, after an illness of about 3 weeks, wherein he suffered the most excruciating pain, his disorder being the bilious cholic, which he bore with truly Christian fortitude and patience, and was a striking example of the value of those principles of religion which along are valuable, when the world becomes of no consequence to a man, altho' he could possess the whole of it. Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright, for the end of that man is peace.

Moses EMERSON, M.D., died at Towanda, on the 14th ult., in the 45th year of his age. This worthy citizen was a defender of the rights of our country, and personally engaged in the memorable action at Bunker's Hill, after which he continued in our army and service of the country by land and sea for several years, and after a variety of scenes and changes of life, he settled here in an early day where the poor felt, and found him a friend indeed with but little profit to himself for several years together. On the 17th Nov. 1803, he married the relict of Stephen LATISMER, late of this place and since that time he discharged the duties of a husband and father to the orphan children in the highest degree. What proved fatal to him was a bruise he unfortunately got in on one of his feet, in which he suffered much pain and terminated in hi death. Before his decease he was informed by some of hi s friends, that that was like to be the end of it, upon which he appeared resigned, and eventually left en evidence to the world that Christians can meet death with as much or more fortitude than Romans ever could. The next day after he expired his neighbors generally met at his house to whom a discourse suitable to the occasion was delivered from Genesis 3rd and latter part of the 19th verse "for dust thou are and unto dust thou shall return." By the Rev. Thomas SMILEY. After which his remains were committed to its native earth , with decency and respectability.

William GALLUP, died at Kingston on Friday last, aged about 40. On the morning of the day of his death he went out about a mile to cut some wood. At noon one of his children was sent to call him to dinner, who returned directly with the afflicting news that his father was dead. A number of the neighbors immediately repaired to the place where he had been at work and there they found the unfortunate man, with his head in a small creek, and his feet lying upon the bank. From appearances it is supposed that he fell a small tree, which striking against another in its descent, sprung and struck him on the head and knocked him into the place where he was found; and that he was so stunned by the blow as not to be able to raise himself from the water, in which he drowned. He has left a numerous family to bewail his untimely fate.

List of Acts passed during the second session of the 9th Congress (46 Acts) - (See p. 2-3-m)

At the Court, held this week in town, three persons were sentenced to the state prison: Alfred ARMSTRONG, a black boy about 16 years old, for burglary - three years. John JOHNSON, about 19 years of age, for burglary and larceny (two suits) - two years. David GOUGH, a lad about 15, for horse stealing - three years. This lad plead Guilty, and the Court, in the first place sentenced him to one year's imprisonment. During the evening of the day on which he had received his sentence, Judge COOPER, it is understood, heard some reports against the general character of the lad, and the next morning ordered him before the court. He appeared and the judge altered his sentence and increased the time of his imprisonment from one to three years. The boy was remanded to jail. When lo! It appeared that his second sentence had been pronounced in a court of Common Pleas; and not in a court of Quarter Sessions. The poor fellow was a third time brought forward - a court of Quarter Sessions opened, and Judge COOPER passed sentence a third time upon him! And the last time, I am told, the prisoner was in irons. On Thursday morning the Sheriff started with the prisoners to Philadelphia. Whether any of them will be sent back again (as formerly) as illegally committed, we do not yet know. During the sitting of the court, two men (one of whom was the constable of Kingston) were hurried off to jail for whispering, where they were confined for some hours. This created great murmurs among the People.

8 May 1807

If the last winter has not been severer than any preceding one for a long course of years, it has at least, marked its way by as many melancholy circumstances. We some time ago mentioned the death of the unfortunate MERRIT, at Wyalusing, and today we have learned the fate of another citizen, who perished by the cold. In the beginning of January last, John SMITH, of Sugar-Creek, took his rifle and started into the woods on an excursion after deer. As it was often the case when his pursuit led him far from home that he took shelter at the house of some acquaintance, his family were not alarmed at his absence through the night. The next day passed, and the day following, and the anxious wife had wearied her eyes in vain, in watching the path way for the return of her partner. On the fourth, she extended the alarm for Mr. SMITH through the neighborhood, and a number of men went out in pursuit of him. After following his track in various directions, for many miles, they, at length, towards evening came to the spot where the wretched wanderer expired. It appeared that Mr. SMITH has attempted to kindle a fire in an old log, but in blowing the spark, cold, hunger and fatigue overpowered him, and he sunk back upon the snow and without a struggle or exertion closed his eyes for ever. The day before Mr. SMITH went out, he sold his dog to a man who lived about twenty miles from him., and Mr. RUTTY (the purchaser) had led him home. But the faithful animal was found upon the breast of his old master, watching with all the solicitude of love, the moment when he should awake. He has scratched around him, and upon his master's breast, undoubtedly to awaken him; but when he found it in vain, coiled himself over his heart, and there had nearly expired. Faithful creature! Thy fidelity and attachment shame and boasted virtues of man. The manner in which the dog found his master, is a question difficult to resolve. He was in the wilderness, ten miles from Mr. RUTTY'S and on tracking his track some distance, it appeared that he came in the direct course to the spot from the house of his new master, and it could not be discovered that he had been at all on the track of Mr. SMITH. The deceased was a man much and deservedly esteemed by his acquaintance; he has left a wife and seven children to mourn their loss and his untimely fate.

The annual election for Borough Officers, on Tuesday last, the following gentlemen were chosen for the ensuing

Burgess: Jesse FELL

Town Council: Ebenezer BOWMAN, Lord BUTLER, Nathan PALMER, Arnold COLT, Wiliam

ROSS, Joseph SLOCUM and John P. ARNDT

High Constable: Peter YARRINGTON

Mrs. Ruth, widow of Jonathan SLOCUM, died on Wednesday last, aged 71 years. She with her husband and family, removed to this place from Rhode Island 30 years ago. Here they suffered in common with the other first settlers, all the hardships incident to the establishment of new settlements in a wilderness, together with the distresses arising from domestic persecution, and all horrors of an Indian War. A short time after the family were settled here, a party of savages attacked the house, killed a man at the door, rushed in, seized two of her children, a son and a daughter. The daughter, about five years old, they bore off, and she has never once been seen since by her friends, although it was understood she was not killed. The son was lame from a wound in his foot, and Mrs. SLOCUM, as though certain what must be his fate, as he would be unable to travel, with uncommon fortitude, stepped up to the Indian who had him, and demanded her boy. With a horrid smile, the savage gave him up, and left the house in pursuit of others.

The next year another party of Indians came down upon the settlements. Mrs. SLOCUM, his aged father, and a son (Wm. SLOCUM, Esq., of Lackawanna) were at a hay stack, in the field, where they were attacked. Resistance was vain and mercy was a stranger to the bosom of the blood-thirsty wretches. The husband of Mrs. SLOCUM, and his father fell. The Indians pursued Mr. W. SLOCUM and wounded him in the leg; and the ball has never been extracted. Thus has the cup of affliction been often and deeply drained by the unfortunate widow. A husband, father and daughter, were wrested from her by the murderous savages. Mrs. SLOCUM sustained the character of a good wife, an affectionate mother, a kind and charitable friend: and the unaffected regret, exhibited by all her acquaintance, witnesses her worth.

>From the "Connecticut Courant" - Thomas HUTCHINS has advertised that I have absented myself from his bed and board, and forbid all persons trusting me on his account and cautions all persons against making me any payment on his account; I now advertise the public that the said Thomas HUTCHINS came as a fortune hunter into this town about a year ago, with a recommendation, which with some artful falsehoods induced me to marry him and take him into my house and bed which he brutality has drove me with wounds and bruises; he has threatened my life, kept me by force from entering my house to take any of my clothing, money, or to her property; he as also forcibly detained the chest, money and property of my sister; his fears that any body will trust him are vain, as I will not pay his debts; some debts due to me when I married. I hope will not be paid to him; I have never heard that any body owed him a debt, if he do, they had better pay him immediately, as he will want it, for I shall maintain him no longer. Of the four wives he had before me, the last he quarreled away, how the other three came by their deaths he can best inform the public. But I caution all widows or maidens against marrying him, be their desire for matrimony ever so strong. Should he make his advances under a feigned name, they may look out for a little strutting, talkative, feeble, meager, hatchet faced fellow, with spindle shanks and a little warp'd in the back! Being lately at the house of the widow GODDARD, and mentioning that I did not recollect to have seen the death of her husband published in the paper, she told me she had forwarded the particulars to you, and regretted that she had not seen them published in the Federalist which she read weekly. A Customer.

16 July 1806, Ezra GODDARD, of Burlington, Sugar Creek, aged 45, sat fire to his fallow near his buildings. Leaving some hands to watch the fire, he went himself to the side adjoining the mills. About one hour and a half after, he was found by his little son, lying on his back, motionless. On Mrs. GODDARD'S coming and attempting to raise him up, he said he was dying, and asked for water. On his brother Capt. Luther GODDARD and others being called to his assistance, they discovered his back to be broken and one shoulder mashed to pieces; he survived a few moments and expired, leaving a wife and six children to bemoan the loss of an affectionate husband and kind and tender parent. His funeral and sermon preached from Isaiah 33:13, by the Rev. John M'KEAN.

The subscriber informs his friends and the public in general, that he has again opened A House of Entertainment, at his old Stand, two miles below the mouth of Wyalusing Creek. Having furnished himself with the best of Liquors and other accommodations, he hopes to obtain the patronage of the public, and will endeavor to give satisfaction to those who may call upon him. Humphrey BROWN, Springfield.

On Saturday last, the inhabitants of Pittston, were visited by a severe hail storm. The cloud passed over them, from the S. E. The storm continued about half an hour and covered the ground with about two inches deed with hail. The grain suffered very much from its ravages, and in some places whole fields of corn and buckwheat were entirely destroyed. A number of windows were broken and some poultry killed. Ebenezer MARCEY is supposed to have sustained nearly $200 damage by the hail. Its material effects were confined to a narrow vein.

At a meeting holden on the 17th inst. at the house of John MC CORD, in and for the Township of Tunkhannock, agreeable to appointment, in order to take into consideration the importance of the request of a meeting holden at Wilkesbarre on the 5th inst. by a party; inviting the people of said party, to appoint and send conferees to a meeting to be held at the house of John HARDING, in

Exeter, on the 19th inst., Whereupon a very respectable number of inhabitants of Tunkhannock met, agreeable to said appointment. The meeting being opened indue form. Zebulon MARCY, Esq. was called to the Chair and Capt. John M'CORD, appointed Secretary. And after taking into consideration the matters aforesaid:

Resolved, That they will not appoint or send any conferees to the meeting at John HARDING'S aforesaid, or any other place where all good citizens have not an equal right without any distinction as to party; for the reasons following, viz:

First - Because we believe that the present crisis requires a general unanimity not only in townships, counties and states but throughout the whole Federal Union

Second - because that although great animosities and disturbances have so long existed as well in the country as elsewhere, merely about names, when the true interest and meaning of the good people on both sides, are one and the same.

Third - Because the proposals of the said meeting carries with it the clearest mark of distinction and partyism.

Fourthly - Because the invitation to the different townships, are directed only to a party, whereof this township do not consider themselves; while they declare themselves one people - and do disapprove of any proceedings of the kind, done by any party whatever.

Lastly - Resolved that the proceedings of this meeting be signed by the Chairman and Secretary and published in the Luzerne Federalist. Zebulon MARCY, Chairman, John MC CORD, Secretary, Tunkhannock

Epitaph - The Happy Marriage
 Who knew not matrimonial wo,
 And ne'er exprsse'd a wish to part;
 Love the sole regent of the heart.
 Without a through their minutes roll'd
 And life's last sands were sands of gold;
 What precious hours - what charming weather!
 You ask how long they liv'd together?
 >From good authority I speak,
 They liv'd together - one whole week.

Caleb Whiting CAMPBELL, died at Athens, Lycoming Co. on 9th inst, aged 22 years, son of Samuel CAMPBELL, at this place. He was a promising and unexceptionable character; his death is regretted by all who knew him, and with him an aged and reverend parent has buried his filial dependence, for a solace of cares in the evening of his life.

To Firemen! In case of fire, the following suggested to those who may be employed in its extinction: As heat and smoke ascend to the upper part of the room, a stream of pure air occupies the space near the floor, a person can crawl on his hands and knees into a room full of smoke, and by keeping his face close to the floor, he may go and return where no one could walk upright. This method is practiced by the London fireman, who have hence acquired the name of Salamanders.

Indian Anecdote - When the first civilized adventurers arrived at Wyoming, and found a permanent settlement in the year 1769, they discovered in the soil, evident marks of a long and populous pre-occupancy and yet but very few of the aboriginals in the country. They enquired of the natives the reason of the present sparse population, who accounted for it by the following narration. And though we cannot presume to vouch for its authenticity, yet as the facts narrated appear to be exceedingly congenial to the ordinary habits of savagism, we are inclined to believe them tolerably correct. For it doubtless is, to sanguinary extirpations, resulting from trivial causes that the thin population in all savage countries, is in a great measure owing. We would only remark, for the better illustration of the subject, that the Shawnees town was on the west side of the Susquehannah and that of the Wyomings, on the east side, about two miles higher up. Some Shawnee Squaws of high rank went one day, to make a friendly visit to those of equal rank in Wyoming. Some of the children of the one party caught an elegant green Grasshopper; the children of the other party attempted to rob them of the prize; this produced a squabble among the children; the mothers of both parties soon enlisted in the scuffle, and as soon grew angry: furious blows and bloody noses ensued. The Shawnee women broke off abruptly their friendly visit. And, hastening home in transports of rage, related in loud and affecting accents the unhappy reencounter. Their husband caught the flame, and the next day hot with rage, marched off and made a furious attack on the Wyomingers. These though unprepared made a vigorous resistance, and after much bruising and some blood shed, night coming on hostilities ceased. The Wyomingers highly irritated by this unexpected outrage, soon after roused all their energies; made a violent assault on the Shawnees, and killed three hundred the same day; and many of the Wyomingers likewise fell. It is said that the bones of those who perished on the bloody day were still lying on the field of battle, when the first white settlers came on the ground. As trivial as the sanguinary contrast about the green grasshopper, may appear to men of sense and information; it may nevertheless be considered as sufficient a cause for war, as the question about the delivery of five deserters, which now agitates the United States and Great Britain.

A Bargain! For sale — situated about 1 ½ miles from the Court — House in Wilkesbarre. Farm consists of 30 acres (more may be had if the purchaser chooses, 7 or 8 acres are under improvement. A convenient dwelling house is on the premises. The Mill is 30 feet by 35, two stories above ground. Has now one pair of Stones and a superfine boulting cloth. There is sufficient room in the Mill for another Water Wheel and two more pair of Stones. The mill is erected just below the junction of all the branches of Solomon's Creek and offers an inviting situation to any person disposed to enter into the Milling Business. For terms apply to the subscriber on the premises. Samuel ROTHROCK.

Increase of Bees — Capt. Jeremiah BLANCHARD, of Pittston, informs me that last Fall he brought home a Hive of Bees — And last Monday a swarm left the hive, flew round awhile and returned again. ON Tuesday the swarm left the hive again and were well secured. On Wednesday there came out a second swarm, and were hived. On Thursday there came forth a third and on Friday a fourth swarm — all from the same hive, and are well secured. These Bees must I think, be of a Grecian or New England breed, from their sending forth so many emigrants. This great increase I think argues well to the owner, and good fortune has fallen to a worthy man.

The subscribers of the Wilkesbarre Ship Building Company, are desired to meet on Saturday the 2nd July at the house of George TAYLOR, Wilkesbarre.

Notice - As the practice of Horse 'Stealing has become so prevalent, and is likely to increase, if some effectual plan is not adopted and executed to prevent the mischief that will result to the community at large, from Horse thieves; and as it is next to an impossibility for the suffering individual to apprehend the perpetrators, it would be accordant with the feelings of humanity, and the protection of property to form a Society calculated to counteract the evil, Therefore, Notice is hereby given to such of citizens of Luzerne County, as are willing to form a Company for the purpose of suppressing Horse stealing and pursuing Horse Thieves, are requested to meet at the house of Silas JACKSON, Inkeeper in Wilkesbarre, on Monday the 12th Feb. next, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon to agree upon a plan, and rules and regulations to govern a Company for the purpose aforesaid.

Carlisle, Penn. (Dec. 29) On Wednesday morning last, a duel was fought in the neighbourhood of the Carlisle Barracks, between Mr. HAXTOR of the dragoons, and Ensign SHAW of the 5th regiment. Mrs. HAXTON we understand was mortally wounded at the second fire.

Pennsylvania Legislature — Jan. 5th — Mr. GRAHAM presented a petition from the commissioners of Luzerne Co., praying that the sum of two thousand dollars may be appropriated, for the purpose of bridging and causewaying the road from the point where the Coshecton and Great-bend turnpike passes through Moosic mountain, to the west line of the state; and said petition was read and referred to the committee on roads and inland navigation.

Pennsylvania Legislature — Jan. 9th — Mr. DORRANCE presented three petitions of like tenor, from a number of the inhabitants of the northern part of Wayne County, praying that certain parts of Wayne and Luzerne Counties therein described, may be erected into a new and separate County, to be called, "Madison County." Referred to the committee appointed on the 8th of December last on a similar subject. Jan. 12th — Mr. DORRANCE from the committee to whom were referred on the 8th, 11, and 23rd Dec. last, and also on the 9th inst. the petitioners of a number of the inhabitants of the northern parts of Luzerne and Lycoming Counties, praying that a new county district may be laid off according to the lines and boundaries therein described, made report, to which the following resolution was attached; Resolved That a committee be appointed to bring in a bill for the purpose of establishing two new counties districts, agreeably to the lines and bounds above described. [We understand that the committee who were appointed on the above business, have reported a bill in favor of the two new County Districts, which has passed both houses of the Legislature.]

Tunkhannock, Feb. 11, 1810: Messrs. Printers, I have bought one acre of land for which I have paid forty dollars, with an intention to follow the directions of your Agricultural Society, formed for the benefit of this county; but on examination the principles there laid down, I find them quite inaccurate, and would ruin any farmer in this part of the county, should they follow them only five years. The expenses of cultivation are much greater than the profits of the crops following.

For instance:

The land costs $ 40.00

200 bushels lime 150.00

60 loads manure 30.00

2 days work spreading the manure 1.33

3 days plowing & working ground with team 9.00

1 pint turnip seed .50

Sowing and rolling the ground 1.50

Pulling and cutting the turnips

4.00

$236.33

The following Spring preparing the Ground, finding and sowing the land with oats 5.00

16 bushels grass seed 40.00

10 lbs. clover seed 2.50

Cutting and securing the oats

2.25

$286.08 -

By 9 tons hay in 3 years, which
Is as long as any land ought to be Laid down to seed

72.00

$144.08

Allow the feed for cattle to pay for
The trouble of securing the grass;
Taxes, repairing and fencing the land

In debt $154.08

Thus you see Gentlemen, this calculations (without drilling and horse-hoeing, terms which I do not understand) is as low as any Framer here can estimate his labor, and allow the manure to produce five crops, which is more than common for any land. I should be gratified to know, who in the Agricultural Society, has given the directions, which you have published. Surely not one of our profession; if so it must be one that never attempted farming, either in theory or practice.

Tyler's Patent Grist Mill. Col. Benjamin TYLER, had obtained Letters of Patent from the President of the US, for an improvement in the construction of Water Wheels, by applying what he calls the Wry-Fly Water-Wheel, which improvement may be applied to Grist Mills, Paper-Mills, Fulling-Mills, & various kinds of Machinery. The advantages of this kind of Mills are numerous.

1st Their great simplicity and cheapness.

2nd They are very simply and easily secured from freezing.

3rd The geers are much less expensive to build and keep in repair, & take up very little room, of course it does not require so expensive a Mill-house, as the common construction.

They are judged to go with as little water as an overshot Mill, and much less than any other kind of water-wheel. They have been much approved of in the Eastern States, for a few years past, and have become in general use in many places, and of great public utility. The Subscribers being Assignees, and having a thorough knowledge of the plan from its origin, will warrant to the Publick, that Mills which they shall build on this plan, to answer a valuable purpose. The Subscribers have put in motion two run of stones, with the fanning and bolting machinery, for Capt. Ebenezer and Maj. Benjamin SLOCUM, in the township of Providence. Gentlemen wishing to repair, or build Mills on this construction, are invited to call on the above Gentlemen, or on Charles MINER of Wilkesbarre, where information will be given and applications received. The Patent rights will be disposed of by single licenses, townships, counties or otherwise.

The River, the fortnight past, has presented a very lively and agreeable prospect. Its bosom has been whitened with the rafts and arks floating on its current of market, and the banks of old Susquehanna, that rest reverberated the yells of the Savage, now echo the jovial song, of the wood-land sailor and the merry boatmen. Success to their enterprise and a happy return to their wives and sweet-hearts. We do not know that any account has been kept of the number of arks and rafts that have gone by us, but it is certain that the business on the river has very rapidly increased.

A disappointment in the receipt of paper obliges us, extremely to our mortification, to issue the Gleaner on paper of an inferior quality. Having ordered a supply for a year we hope no cause to apologise will again occur.

Notice — The undersigned respectfully informs his friends and the Public, that he has removed from Wilkesbarre to the township of Bridgewater, in the new County of Susquehanna, near the intersection of the Post and state Roads, where he will continue in the business of Surveying, Conveyancing and Land-Agency, and where all calls in the line of his business, will be promptly and faithfully attended to. The Supervisors of the several townships in Luzerne and Ontario Counties, who have engaged Township Maps are informed that their Maps are in the hands of George HAINES, Esq., who is authorised to deliver them. Jonathan GRAY, hereby gives Notice that he shall continue the practice of Physic, Surgery and Midwifery, on the following terms, viz: 25 cents for every mile and under, from his dwelling house on the Great Bend to the sick, one dollar for every six hours continuance with a patient sick of a fever. Two dollars and an half for setting and doing up every simply fractured and dislocated bone, and charge of distance. Twenty shillings for every natural case in Midwifery, and mileage. When two or more patients call on the same route, the millage shall be proportioned among them. For all extraordinary cases in surgery or midwifery, the charges are to be in proportion. One quarter part shall be deducted in every case, where immediate payment is made. Six months credit will be allowed, if payment will then be sure. And all shall be done gratis, for any person who is less capable to pay, than the Practitioner is to live without it. Great Bend.

Most Melancholy. A young woman belonging to Northmoreland, sometime last February went to Braintrim to nurse her aged Grandmother, who was in ill health. Circumstances gave rise to suspicion that she was with child, but as her character stood fair and she denied the fact, but little further was thought of the matter. On Wednesday night the 17 April she sat up with the old Lady, and towards one o'clock left the room for some time. She returned again however without her absence being particularly noticed, and continued about the house, assisting as usual until the following Sabbath, at which time suspicion of what had happened, grew so strong that she was charged with having become a mother, and she confessed it. In a Spring about 30 rods from the door, half covered with old trees and brush, wrapped in an apron the little infant was found. A jury was summoned by Esqrs. CHAMPION and STEPHENS of Braintrim, which returned a verdict of wilful murder. The poor girl insists that the child was born dead, and the story that is circulating that she confessed she took its life is incorrect. The sickness of the girl prevents here removal to prison, but she is under keepers, and is expected to be committed in a few days. We sincerely sympathize with the respectable and afflicted family and friends. [See next week for name]

Notice — All persons indebted to the firm of F. Y. & J. M. PIOLLET, are requested to make immediate payment — the delinquents must expect to pay costs. We are happy to have it in our power to state that the aqueduct for supplying the town with water from the great spring on the mountain has been completed. At a trifling expense the water can now be furnished in every kitchen, and stable in town. From the height from which the water is brought, it can be raised over the top of any house in the place, and it therefore affords a great security against fire.

Wool will be received at the store of ROBINSON & KING, in Wilkesbarre and returned there when carded. Daniel D. SPENCER, Isaac HOLLISTER, Kingston.

4th of July — Those who wish to celebrate our next Anniversary at Harvey's Lake, or its vicinity, are requested to attend a meeting to be holden at the house of widow WHEELER, in Kingston, on Saturday the 15th June inst. to consult on preparatory measures.

14 June 1811

Thunder Storm — On Sunday evening last, a thunder storm passed over the lower part of this county, and struck the house of Jacob BALLIOT, in Nescopeck. The lightning descended the chimney, and following a stove pipe, entered the room where the family were sitting. Three children were struck to all appearances dead. Two we are happy to learn, recovered. The other girl about 12 years of age, was buried in Thursday.

Mr. BODWELL and his wife, died a Wysox last month of small pox the natural way. Mrs. B. left two little girls, twins, but three days old, who have since been consigned with their parents to the grave.

Garrick MALLERY to Miss Sylvina, daughter of Lord BUTLER, Esq., in this town on Monday last by Rev. HOYT.

Indian Antiquity. The Editors have received from a friend at Braintrim a curious old Indian pot. In the Great flood of 1807, when the bank of the river was in some places cut away three or four perches, the flat called Hemlock Bottom, in Braintrim Township, suffered exceedingly. Some rods of the bank were entirely swept away. After the waters subsided Mr. YOUNG, the gentleman from whom we received the information and to whom we are indebted for this curiosity, in walking under the bank discovered the pot interwoven among the roots of a tree. With some trouble he got it out without damage, and it is entire except a small hole in the side, from which it seems probable a spout or handle had projected. The pot was found about 6 feet below the surface of the earth and the tree which grew over it is more than two feet in diameter. Its time of lying there therefore must have been very ancient, undoubtedly for ages.

The white people have no knowledge of the art of making such ware. The race of Indians that inhabited this country when the white people came here was equally ignorant of the art. That there must have been a different race of people who inhabited this country before the savages who occupied it when it was discovered by the white people admits of little doubt; they were undoubtedly rude, but yet more civilized than their successors.

The pot holds about 2 quarts the bottom is round; it swells gradually to the middle and then decreases in size to the top — the lower half is like the bottom of a gourd — the upper part like the top of an urn. It is very thin and light — perfectly smooth inside, but on the outside beautifully and regularly figured.

Samuel FERRIS, of Providence Township, on Saturday the 8th inst., aged about 15 months, fell into a tub of hot water and was so severely scalded, that he died the next day in convulsions.

A young girl by the name of JONES, was unfortunately killed yesterday at Newport. She was sitting under an old tree in the field tending a little child; the tree which by some means was on fire at top, burnt off and fell and put an instant period to her existence. The child is so much hurt that its life is despaired of.

Richard NEWMAN to Mrs. Nancy MULLISON at Kingston on 16th June, by David PERKINS, Esq.

Public Notice — Is hereby given that by virtue of an Act of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, entitled "An Act of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, entitled "An Act to enable the Governor to incorporate a Company for making an artificial Road by the best and nearest route from the place where the Wilkesbarre Road intersects the Coshecton and Great Bend Turnpike Road, in the township of Clifford, Susquehanna County, to the Borough of Wilkesbarre, Luzerne Co." Joseph BOWES, Merchant to Miss Ann CHEESMAN, at Willingborough, by the Rev. Daniel BUCK (no date).

"Murder will out." About twelve years ago when the United States were raising troops, a company was enlisted at Wyoming, under Capt. Samuel BOWMAN. Among the soldiers who entered the service was one whose name was PARKER, a young, good looking man, who had removed to this place from N. Jersey. After the army was disbanded, he returned to this county, and married a young woman of Hanover. They lived together some time, but not on the most agreeable terms. Some reports say that her father advised her to poison him, and that she either stewed a toad in his soup, or put one into his milk for the purpose, but it had not the desired effect. The family quarrel continued to rage, and PARKER became an object of the most inveterate hatred with the wife and all her connexions.

In the southern line of the township of Hanover, in a lone and sequestered spot, there is a pond, frequented by deer, where hunters are much in the habit of going in pursuit of game. To this place, he, his father-in-law and another person, it is thought his wife's brother, went a hunting. Two of the party only returned, and they reported that PARKER had runaway, taking his course thro' the woods, and they suspected had gone to his mother in New Jersey. Some pains were taken at the time to ascertain if he had been with his friends there, but nothing more was ever heard of him from that time to this!

The family of the lost man, and all his wife's connexions soon after removed 3 or 400 miles to the westward.

Not long ago, two young men were out at the lake hunting, when they discovered in the midst of a deep thicket, a pile of stones heaped by the side of a rock. Curiosity led them to open it, when behold, beneath the pile was a human skeleton! It appeared to have been thrown in hastily, partly on its face. The skull which was fully preserved; had marks of a glancing stroke from a hatchet. The teeth are so entire, that it is evident it was the skeleton of a young man, and the people in the neighborhood are strongly impressed with the opinion that it is the remains of poor PARKER, and that some persons at the westward, know more about it than their own security will permit them to disclose.

Caution — The Public are hereby cautioned against receiving a Note given by me last fall to John SEELY, for eleven dollars, for as nearly the amount of said Note had been paid once, I will not pay it again unless compelled by law. Alden SEELY, Bridgewater.

The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for the integrity of the financial system and for the ability to detect and prevent fraud. The document also outlines the responsibilities of individuals involved in the process, including the need for transparency and accountability.

The second part of the document provides a detailed overview of the various methods used to collect and analyze data. It describes the different types of data sources, such as surveys, interviews, and focus groups, and explains how this information is used to identify trends and patterns. The document also discusses the challenges associated with data collection and analysis, such as ensuring the reliability and validity of the data.

The third part of the document focuses on the development of a comprehensive framework for the research. It outlines the key components of the framework, including the research objectives, the research questions, and the research methods. The document also discusses the importance of having a clear and concise framework that guides the entire research process. This framework is essential for ensuring that the research is conducted in a systematic and organized manner.

The fourth part of the document discusses the results of the research and the implications for practice. It presents the findings of the study and explains how these findings can be used to inform decision-making and to improve the effectiveness of the research. The document also discusses the limitations of the study and the need for further research in this area.

The fifth part of the document provides a summary of the key findings and conclusions of the research. It highlights the most important results and discusses the implications for practice. The document also includes a list of references and a list of appendices. The references provide a comprehensive overview of the literature related to the research, while the appendices provide additional information that supports the findings of the study.

The final part of the document discusses the future of the research and the need for continued collaboration and communication. It emphasizes the importance of sharing research findings and of working together to address the challenges facing the research community. The document also includes a list of references and a list of appendices. The references provide a comprehensive overview of the literature related to the research, while the appendices provide additional information that supports the findings of the study.

Independence - The Inhabitants of Braintrim and its vicinity, met on the 4th July to celebrate the Anniversary of American Independence, at the house of Hiram WARD, Braintrim. Maj. Daniel STERLING, was chosen President, and John SUTTON, Vice President for the day. After the necessary preparations were made, precisely at 3 o'clock an Oration was delivered by Jasper FASSETT, which was completely suited to the occasion, and merited the approbation of every candid spectator. The sentiments of the composition, and the eloquent manner of delivery, were highly satisfactory to the company, and honorable to the orator. At five o'clock, a very luxuriant repast was served, after which the following Toasts were drank, under the discharge of musketry.

1. May disappointment be to those that would betray their country's cause, for the sake of ambition, or sordid gain. 2 cheers
2. May heroism and patriotism ever exist in our land, and traitors be expelled from our shores. 2 cheers
3. The brave heroes of '76 who fought and gained our independence. 1 cheer
4. May the daughters of America adorn it, and her sons defend it, and never meet their enemies unprepared. 4 cheers.
5. Let Independence, Liberty and Virtue, exist in the bosom of every American. 2 cheers.
6. The American Flag, may it never be unfurled in the cause of injustice. 4 cheers.
7. May our patriotic father, ever teach their sons and daughters, the worth of virtue, liberty and independence. 3 cheers.
8. May this, and every succeeding generations of America, celebrate this day with that respect due to it, and may we ever keep it sacred in honor to our fathers, and respect to

9. The brave soldiers of the Revolution, may their grateful country render their old age comfortable.
10. Agriculture, commerce and manufactures, the three fold cord of our country's prosperity.
11. The American Artillery, may they ever be charged with double-headed shot, and well levelled at the walls of our enemies. 4 cheers
12. May the rulers of our nation ever manage the affairs of the states as a Washington, that we may ever retain the rights we have gained. 2 cheers
13. The American Fair, may their arms prove our refuge, as well as adversity as prosperity. 2 cheers.
14. The citizens of Braintrim, may they ever celebrate the 4th of July in peace and harmony. 6 cheers
15. The Inhabitants of Wyoming, may they ever enjoy the right of soil, which their fathers purchased by the loss of virtuous blood, and never may their sons disgrace it by cowardice. 6 cheers
16. Universal education, the best supporter of liberty and virtue
17. The combined Seventeen, Let each have a toast, For the venerable host, who imbibes the spirit of '76. 3 cheers.

We have the satisfaction to state that the day was spent in peace and harmony, as all matters of political faction seemed totally lost, and the brightest sensations of pure love and patriotism seemed to glow in every breast.

The first part of the paper discusses the importance of understanding the underlying mechanisms of the observed phenomena. This is followed by a detailed analysis of the data, which shows a clear trend towards a more integrated approach. The results of the study are presented in the following section, highlighting the key findings and their implications for future research. The paper concludes with a summary of the main points and a call to action for the research community.

The second part of the paper focuses on the practical application of the findings. It provides a comprehensive overview of the current state of the field and identifies the key challenges that need to be addressed. The author then presents a series of recommendations for policy and practice, based on the evidence presented in the paper. These recommendations are designed to be both realistic and achievable, and they provide a clear roadmap for the future.

The third part of the paper discusses the broader context of the research and its implications for the wider community. It explores the potential for the findings to be used in a variety of different settings, and it discusses the importance of ongoing research and evaluation. The paper ends with a final statement on the importance of the work and a call to action for the research community.

The Federal majority will be considerably increased in the lower part of the county this year. Last year in Wyalusing — Wysox and Orwell owing to local causes, the opposite ticket had a large majority. Yet the Sheriff ticket was lost by the great number of Federal candidate, the successful candidates no having one third of the whole votes of the freemen.

In Tunkhannock last year the voters did not one half of them give a suffrage for Auditors; it was from this circumstance that one of the auditors was lost. This year Wyalusing, Wysox and Orwell will give handsome federal majorities, and it is hoped all the citizens will vote candidates for ALL the offices. We may therefore reasonably presume that every federal candidate will prevail by a large majority; and this more particularly as Davis DIMOCK, much the best man on the democrattick ticket, has absolutely declined.

Valuable Property — I will sell at Private Sale, 1300 Acres of land, situated in Wayne Co., on the Shehola Creek, about half a mile from its junction with the Delaware. ON this tract a dwelling house and saw mill are erected, and some other improvements are made; but the land is principally under timber, consisting of yellow and white Pine, which renders it valuable. A Purchaser may find the price reasonable and terms of payment easy, on application to the subscriber, living in Horsham Twp., Montgomery Co. Seneca LUKENS.

Notice — My son, Enos SMITH, sometimes called J. SMITH, was sent by me on business, form the County of Ontario, town of Middlesex, and State of New-York, in the month of May last, & on his way to Wilkesbarre, at Keeler's Ferry, fell into the hands of some raftmen from Tioga Point, who in an unlawful manner made out an Advertisement in my name, and took the boy and bound him, and took from him his mare, saddle, bridle, and leather, and at Nescopeck falls, or near there, was ordered off the Raft by CHAPMAN, and pushed into the river by TAMMAGE, and it is thought by many, that my son is drowned. I have travelled about one thousand miles, and can find nothing of him. If he is alive, it is my sincere request he should return home. He is about 18 years old, had on long boots, a long drab colored coat and overalls, yellow jacket and handkerchief, and black hat; blue eyes, brown hair, middling slim, and a down look. Any information concerning the boy, will be thankfully received by me. Nathan SMITH.

Examination — The Examination of the Scholars in the Wilkesbarre Academy, was this day concluded: Their progress in the various sciences, was satisfactory, to the managers and Trustees, and honorable to the Instructors and Pupils. The next Quarter will commence in two weeks from next Monday.

Samuel W. BENEDICT, aged 24 years, son of John BENEDICT, died at Pittston, on the 11th inst. He has left an aged father and mother, and many other relatives to mourn his loss. The deceased had been in the profession of school-keeping for ten years, and was universally beloved by his pupils, and respected by all his employers, and his character unblemished. His moral deportment was truly sincere and unspotted; he bore his disorder, of which he died, with admirable patience and fortitude; the example he set before his companions was well worthy to pattern after. He left the world with a full assurance of a glorious immortality. His funeral was numerously attended with an agreeable discourse delivered by Rev. CARVER, from Rev. 14th

& MOSES,
Auctioneers

The Fulling Business is being carried on in its various branches, where Cloth will be dressed in the neatest manner, and on the shortest notice. Josiah STEWART, Great Bend.

Bridgewater & Wilkesbarre Turnpike — Notice is hereby given to the Subscribers in the Books of the above, that they will meet at the house of Abel MARCY, Innkeeper, Tunkhannock Twp., on Friday the 20th Dec, to choose by a majority of votes by ballot: 1 President, 12 Managers and 1 Treasurer. Ebenezer BOWMAN, Robert H. ROSE, Putnam CATLIN, Elisha HARDING, Commissioners.

Take Notice — All township collectors who do not settle up their duplicates by the first day of December next, may expect that warrants will issue against them in discriminately. By order of the Board of Commissioners. Thomas DYER, Treasurer.

Eloped - From my Bed and Board, my wife, Comfort. It is unpleasant but the necessity is forced upon me. Therefore I do hereby forbid any person from trusting said Comfort, on my account, as I will pay no debts of her contracting, after this date.

Robbery — The subscriber's house was robbed on Tuesday night the 5th inst., of Eighty one dollars in bills of the Hartford bank, payable at New-York. Five dollars will be paid to any person who will restore the money. Aaron PERKINS, Northmoreland, Nov. 15th

John CHERRY, merchant, to Miss Alcinoe, dau. of Maj. Isaac BALDWIN, at Elmira, NY, the 30th ult, by Henry WELLES, Esq. All of Elmira, NY.

Swindlers — We think it our duty to caution the public against a set of swindlers, who infest the country, and are preying upon the people. They profess to be able to make three dollars out of one, by a secret process; and state that their money will bear the strictest test. They therefore propose to receive any sum in silver, and in a short time promise to deliver double the amount. At first they are very punctual to their engagements, and do actually return two good dollars for one received. By this mean they obtain the confidence of the people — get large sums into their hands, and make off with the booty. As they do all their business upon honour, they give no receipt for the money received, nor do they permit any third person to be present when they receive it. A number of persons, we are informed, have been nearly ruined by the villains, in the upper part of the county. Look sharp for them, citizens, and bring them to justice if you can.

Stop Thief! 10 Dollars Reward! Last Wednesday Morning, Jacob PRITCHARD, broke into my Shop and stole a pair of Boots, a black Surrou Coat (the cloth American manufacturer). He was pursued about three miles in the woods, and on being discovered, dropt the Boots, and made off with the Coat, which he had on. He wore a New Fur Hat, new Calf-skins Shoes and blue pantaloons. Said PRITCHARD is about 22 years old, light complexion, light hair, blue eyes, about five feet, six inches high, stock built, and is a bungler at the Carpenter's trade. Whoever will take up said PRITCHARD, and bring him to the Jail of this County, will receive the above Reward. Gilbert LAIRD, Wilkesbarre.
